[27] The Covenant betwen us, *v.*16, 17. ¶ [28] Witness or Judge of our observing or breaking of it.

24 ¶ So David [29] hid himself in the field: and when the new-moon was come, the king sat him down to eat meat.

25 And the king sat upon his seat, as at other times, even upon a seat by the wall: and Jonathan [30] arose, and Abner sat by Sauls side, and Davids place was empty.

[30] To give his place to Abner, as General.

26 Nevertheless, Saul spake not any thing that day: for he thought, Something hath befallen him, he is [31] not clean; surely he is not clean.

27 And it came to pass on the morrow, which was the second day of the month, that Davids place was empty: and Saul said unto Jonathan his son, Wherefore cometh not the [32] son of Jesse to meat, neither yesterday nor to day?

[32] Something a scornful and reproachful speech, (as *ch.*22. 7–9. and 25.10.)

28 And Jonathan answered Saul, David earnestly asked leave of me, to go to Beth-lehem:

29 And he said, Let me go, I pray thee, for our family hath a [9] sacrifice in the city, and my brother, he hath commanded me to be there; and now if I have found favour in thine eyes, let me get away, I pray thee, and see my brethren: Therefore he cometh not unto the kings table.

30 Then Sauls anger was kindled against Jonathan, and he said unto him, ‖ † [33] Thou son of the perverse rebellious woman, do not I know that thou hast chosen the son of Jesse to thine own confusion, and unto the confusion of thy [34] mothers nakedness?

[33] *Matth.*5.22. *Eph.*6.4. q. d. This base temper of thine thou hadst not from me, but from thy Mother, of whose perverseness I have had so much experience. ¶ [34] To the reproach of her having children, as if she were a whore, and thou and the rest bastards, and none of 'em worthy to inherit the Kingdom.

31 For as long as the son of Jesse liveth upon the ground, thou shalt not be established, nor thy kingdom: wherefore now send and fetch him unto me, for he † shall surely die.

32 And Jonathan answered Saul his father, and said unto him, [35] Wherefore shall he be slain? what hath he done?

33 And Saul [36] cast a javelin at him to smite him: whereby Jonathan knew that it was determined of his father to slay David.

34 So Jonathan arose from the table in fierce anger, and did eat no meat the second day of the month: for he was grieved for David, because his father had done him shame.

35 ¶ And it came to pass in the morning, that Jonathan went out into the field, at the time [37] appointed with David, and a little lad with him.

36 And he said unto his lad, Run, find out now the arrows which I shoot. And as the lad ran, he shot an arrow † beyond him.

37 And when the lad was come to the place of the arrow which Jonathan had shot, Jonathan cried after the lad, and said, Is not the arrow beyond thee?

38 And Jonathan cried after the lad, Make speed, haste, stay not. And Jonathans lad gathered up the arrows, and came to his master.

39 But the lad knew not any thing: only Jonathan and David knew the matter.

40 And Jonathan gave his † artillery unto † his lad, and said unto him, Go, carry them to the city.

41 ¶ And assoon as the lad was gone, David [38] arose out of a place toward the south, and fell on his face to the ground, and bowed himself three times: and they kissed one another, and [39] wept one with another, until David [40] exceeded.

[38] Seeing the Coast clear. ¶ [39] Being forc'd to be thus parted asunder. ¶ [40] His condition being more apparently hazardous, and almost desperate.

42 And Jonathan said to David; [41] Go in peace, ‖ forasmuch as we have sworn both of us in the name of the LORD, saying, The LORD be between me and thee, and between my seed and thy seed for ever. And he arose and departed: and Jonathan went into the city.

[41] I wish thee all happiness wherever thou art.

CHAP. V.

1 The tribes come to Hebron to anoint David over Israel: 6 He taketh Zion from the Jebusites.

THen came [1] all the tribes of Israel to David unto Hebron, and spake, saying, Behold,

* Gen.29.14. * we are [2] thy bone and thy flesh.

[1] *V.*3. 1 *Chron.*11.1. and 12.23. A Type of the submission of all Nations to Christ, *Psal.*110.3. *Rev.*11.15. ¶ [2] *Deut.*17.15. So Christ, *Eph.*5.30.

2 Also in time past when Saul was king over us, thou wast he that [3] leddest out and [3] broughtest in Israel: and the LORD [4] said to thee, Thou shalt [5] feed my people Israel, and thou shalt be a captain over Israel.

[3] 1 *Sam.*18.16. ¶ [4] 1 *Sam.*16.12. ¶ [5] *ch.*7.7. *Psal.*78.71,72. Provide for their welfare, by the due administration of Justice.

3 So all the elders of Israel came to the king to Hebron, and king David made a [6] league with them in Hebron [7] before the LORD: and they [8] anointed David king over Israel.

[6] A mutual Covenant and agreement, whereby David obliged himself to rule according to God's Laws, and the People promis'd fidelity and obedience to him. So 2 *King.*11.17. 1 *Chron.*11.3. 2*Chron.*23.17. ¶ [7] *Judg.*11.11.1 *Sam.*23.18. ¶ [8] A third time: The first was only 'a designation to the Office, and was done privately (1 *Sam.*16.13.) The second, only over the Tribe of Judah (*ch.*2.4.) This third over all Israel.

4 ¶ David was [9] thirty years old when he began to reign, and he reigned forty years.

[9] So Christ, Luke 3.22,23.

5 * In Hebron he reigned over Judah seven years, and six months: and in Jerusalem he reigned thirty and three years over all Israel and Judah.

*Chap.2.11. 1 Chron.3.4.

6 ¶ And the king and his men [10] went to [11] Jerusalem, unto the Jebusites, the inhabitants of the land: which spake unto David, saying, Except thou take away the [12] blind and the lame, thou shalt not come in hither: ‖ thinking, David cannot come in hither.

‖ Or, saying, David shall not, &c.

[10] 1 *Chron.*11.4.&c. Took the advantage of this great Concourse of People (1 *Chron.*12.24. &c.) to assault the strong fort of Zion. ¶ [11] Part of which, belonging to the Tribe of Judah, was taken before (*Judg.*1.8.) But the strongest part, belonging to the Tribe of Benjamin, was not taken till now, *Judg.*1.21. and 19.10,11. *Josh.*16.63. ¶ [12] q.d. We'll set only blind and lame persons to defend it, and see if thou canst take it for all that.

Chap. 5.

7 Nevertheless David took the strong hold of Zion: the same is * the [13] city of David.

* 1 King.2.10. [13] Who gave it this name, *v.*9.

8 *And David said on that day, Whosoever [14] getteth up to the gutter, and smiteth the Jebusites, and the lame, and the blind, that are [15] hated of Davids soul, he shall be chief and captain: ‖ [16] wherefore they said, The blind and the lame shall not come into the house.

9 So David dwelt in the fort, and called it, The city of David; and David built round about, from [17] Millo and inward.

[17] Some Tower or Fortress belonging to the City (such a one as was near Sechem, *Jud.*9.6,20,49.) repaired by Solomon, (1 *King.*9.15.24. and 11.-27.) and afterwards by Hezekiah, (2 *Chron.*32.-5.) It seems to be a general name for any strong Fort or Bulwark.

19 And David [23] enquired of the LORD, saying, Shall I go up to the Philistines? wilt thou deliver them into mine hand? And the LORD said unto David, Go up: for I will doubtless deliver the Philistines into thine hand.

20 And David came to [24] Baal-perazim, and David smote them there, and said, The LORD hath broken forth upon mine enemies before me, [25] as the breach of waters. Therefore he called the name of that place, ‖ Baal-perazim.

3 And they † set the ark of God upon a new 6 cart, and brought it out of the * house of Abinadab that was in ‖ Gibeah: and Uzzah and Ahio the sons of Abinadab, drave the new cart.

* 1 Sam.6.19. ‖ Or, rashness.

7 And the anger of the LORD was kindled against Uzzah, and * God 11 smote him there for ‖ 12 errour, and there he died by the ark of God.

11 *Lev.*10.1. 1 Cor. 11.30. ¶ 12 In touching the Ark, contrary to the Law, (*Numb.*4.15.) but chiefly to manifest his displeasure against 'em all for carrying it in a Cart, 1 Chron. 15.13. It's dangerous to vary, tho' but a little, from God's appointment in holy things, and to follow our own Inventions, tho' there be a good intent therein: For a good intention does not warrant an irregular action.

13 Both griev'd and discontented. † Heb. broken. ‖ That is, The breach of Uzzah. * See Luke 5. 8.

8 And David was 13 displeased, because the LORD had † made a breach upon Uzzah: and he called the name of the place, ‖ Perez-uzzah to this day.

9 And David * was 14 afraid of the LORD that day, and said, 15 How shall the ark of the LORD come to me?

10 So David would not remove the ark of the LORD unto him into the city of David: but David carried it aside into the house of Obed-edom the Gittite.

11 And the ark of the LORD continued in the house of Obed-edom the Gittite, three months: and the LORD 16 blessed Obed-edom, and all his household. Chap. 6. 2959.

16 *Matth.*6.33. *Mal.*3.10. *Prov.*3.9,10. We shall be no losers, but gainers by Religion, 1 Tim. 4.8.

12 ¶ And it was told king David, saying, The LORD hath blessed the house of Obed-edom, and all that pertaineth unto him, because of the ark of God. 17 So David went and brought up the ark of God from the house of Obed-edom, into the city of David, with gladness. 17 1 *Chr.*15.25.

13 And it was so, that when 18 they that bare the ark of the LORD, had gone six paces, he 19 sacrificed oxen and fatlings. 18 1 *Chr.*15.15. 19 1 Chr. 15.26.

14 And David 20 danced before the LORD with all his might, and David was girded with 21 a linen ephod.

15 So David and all the house of Israel brought up the ark of the LORD with 22 shouting, and with the sound of the trumpet. 22 1 Chron. 15. 24,28.

16 And as the ark of the LORD came into the city of David, 23 Michal Sauls daughter looked through a window, and saw king David leaping and dancing before the LORD; and she 24 despised him in her heart.

17 ¶ And they brought in the ark of the LORD, and set it in his 25 place, in the midst of the 26 tabernacle that David had † pitched for it: and David offered burnt-offerings, and peace-offerings before the LORD. † Heb. stretched.

25 1 *Chron.*15.1. and 16.1. ¶ 26 The Tabernacle that Moses made for it was now at Gibeon, (1 Chron. 21. 29.) where it remained till Solomon's time, (2 *Chron.*1.3,4. 1 Kings 8. 4.) and therefore this was some shelter set up for it for present use.

18 And assoon as David had made an end of offering burnt-offerings, and peace-offerings, he 27 blessed the people in the name of the LORD of hosts.

27 1 *Chron.*16.2. Pray'd for their peace and prosperity.

19 And he 28 dealt among all the people, even among the whole multitude of Israel, as well to the women as men, to every one a cake of bread, and a good piece of flesh, and a flagon of wine: so all the people departed every one to his house. 28 1 Chr. 16.3

20 ¶ Then David returned to 29 bless his household: and Michal the daughter of Saul came out to meet David, and said, 30 How glorious was the king of Israel to day, who 31 uncovered himself to day in the eyes of the handmaids of his servants, as one of the vain fellows ‖ shamelesly uncovereth himself! ‖ Or, openly.

10 And the rest of the people he delivered into the hand of Abishai his brother, that he might put them in aray against the children of Ammon.

18 ¶ Then Joab sent and told David all the things concerning the war:

12 Then the woman said, Let thine handmaid, I pray thee, speak one word unto my lord the king. And he said, Say on.

13 And the woman said, Wherefore then hast thou thought [16] such a thing against the [17] people of God? for the king doth speak this thing, as one which is [18] faulty, in that the king doth not fetch home again his banished.

9 Behold, he is [8] hid now in some pit, or in some other place: and it will come to pass, when some of [9] them be † overthrown at the first, that whosoever heareth it, will say, There is a slaughter among the people that follow Absalom.

[13] 1 King.20.10

14 And Absalom and all the men of Israel said, The counsel of Hushai the Archite is better then the counsel of Ahithophel: for * the LORD had † appointed to defeat the [14] good counsel of Ahithophel, to the intent that the LORD might bring evil upon Absalom.

19 And the woman took and spread a covering over the wells mouth, and [15] spread ground corn thereon; and the thing was not known.

[15] So Josh.2.6.

20 And when Absaloms servants came to the woman to the house, they said, Where is Ahimaaz and Jonathan? And the woman said unto them, They be [16] gone over the brook of water. And when they had sought and could not find them, they returned to Jerusalem.

21 And it came to pass after they were departed, that they came up out of the well, and went and told king David, and said unto David, Arise, and pass quickly over the water: for thus hath Ahithophel counselled against you.

42 And all the men of Judah answered the men of Israel, Because the king is near of kin to us; wherefore then be ye angry for this matter? have we eaten at all of the kings cost? or hath he given us any gift?

1 Sheba maketh a party in Israel. 4 Amasa is slain. 14 Joab pursueth Sheba unto Abel. 16 A wise woman saveth the city by Sheba's head.

AND there happened to be there a man of [1] Belial, whose name was Sheba the son
* 1 Chr. 10.16. of Bichri, a Benjamite, and he [2] blew a trumpet, and said, * [3] We have no part in David, neither have we inheritance in the son of Jesse: [4] every man to his tents, O Israel.

[1] See on Deut. 13.13. ¶ [2] ch. 12. 10. Psal. 34. 19. Thus God was pleased to correct David for his sins; and to exercise his Faith and Patience with a new affliction in the neck of the former. ¶ [3] 1 King. 12. 16. Act. 8. 21. q. d. The Tribe of Judah have monopoliz'd the King to themselves, and will not allow us any share in him; let 'em therefore enjoy him alone, and let us seek out a new King. ¶ [4] Let us all desist from this unthankful Office of bringing him back, and return each to our own home, that we may consider, and then meet together to choose a new King.

2 So every man of Israel went up from after David, and followed Sheba the son of Bichri: but the men of Judah clave unto their king, from Jordan even to Jerusalem.

5 So Amasa went to assemble the men of Judah; but he tarried longer then the set time which he had appointed him.

6 And David said to Abishai, Now shall Sheba the son of Bichri do us more harm then did Absalom: take thou thy [6] lords servants, and pur-

7 And there went out after him Joabs men, and the [7] Cherethites, and the [7] Pelethites, and

8 When they were at the great stone which is in Gibeon, Amasa went before them: and Joabs garment that he had put on, was girded unto him, and upon it a girdle with a sword fastened upon his loyns in the sheath thereof, and as he went forth, it [8] fell out.

10 But Amasa took no heed to the sword that was in Joabs hand: so * he smote him therewith

11 And one of Joabs men stood by him, and said, He that [11] favoureth Joab, and he that is [12] for David, let him go after Joab.

[11] Will assist him in recovering his Generalship again. ¶ [12] Desires he may have good success in this expedition.

12 And Amasa wallowed in blood in the mids of the high-way: and when the man saw that all the people stood still, he removed Amasa out of the high-way into the field, and cast a cloth upon him, when he saw that every one that came by him, stood still.

13 When he was removed out of the high-way, all the people went on after Joab, to pursue after Sheba the son of Bichri.

14 ¶ And [13] he went through all the tribes of [13] Sheba. 2981. Israel unto Abel, and to Beth-maachah, and all the Berites: and they were gathered together, and went also after him.

17 And when he was come near unto her, the woman said, Art thou Joab? And he answered, I am he. Then she said unto him, Hear the words of thine handmaid. And he answered, I do hear.

21 The matter is not so: but a man of mount Ephraim (Sheba the son of Bichri † by name) hath lift up his hand against the king, even against David: deliver him only, and I will depart from the city. And the woman said unto Joab, Behold, his head shall be thrown to thee over the wall.

I. KINGS.

The ARGUMENT.

THeſe two Books of the Kings contain the Hiſtory of the Church and Commonwealth of the Jews from the end of David's Reign unto the Babyloniſh Captivity, which was the ſpace of four hundred thirty eight years; whereof Solomon reigned forty over all the twelve Tribes: But after his Death, as a Judgment for his Idolatry, (1 King. 11. 11, 12.) they were divided into two Kingdoms; the Kingdom of Judah and Iſrael. Judah continued under the Government of David's Poſterity three hundred ſeventy two years; in which time nineteen Kings of the ſame Stock ſucceeded each other; of which ſome were very good, others Idolaters. And here ſoundneſs of Doctrin and purity of Worſhip was much better maintained than among the ten Tribes; Religion being ſeveral times reformed by the Godly Kings, who were aſſiſted and encouraged therein by ſeveral Prophets.

The Kingdom of Iſrael continued but two hundred thirty ſeven years; in which time there were twenty Kings of ten ſeveral Stocks; of all which there was not one good one; that Kingdom being idolatrous from firſt to laſt: yet they were not utterly diſown'd and rejected by God from being his People (2 King. 9. 6.) but he call'd 'em to Repentance by ſeveral Prophets whom he rais'd up among 'em, (2 King. 17. 13.) and had many faithful Servants among 'em, (1 King. 19. 18.) and ſhew'd mercy to 'em, 2 King. 13. 23.

Concerning both theſe Kingdoms it is obſervable, that when they kept cloſe to God, he bleſs'd and proſper'd them: when they turn'd aſide, they ſmarted for it: By which Inſtances we are taught this Leſſon, That Righteouſneſs exalts a nation; but ſin is a reproach to, (and the ruin of) any people, *Prov.*14.34.

1 The building of Solomons houſe: 2 Of the houſe of Lebanon: 8 Of the houſe for Pharaohs daughter.

3012. BUt Solomon was building his [1] own houſe [2] thirteen years, and he finiſhed all his houſe.

[1] *Ch.*9.10. *Eccl.*2.4,5. ¶ [2] He did not uſe ſuch diligence in this as the Temple, *Matth.*6.33. *Col.*3.1. ch. 10. 17. and 14. 28.

2 ¶ He built alſo the houſe of the [3] foreſt of Lebanon; the length thereof was a hundred cubits, and the breadth thereof fifty cubits, and the height thereof thirty cubits, upon four rows of cedar-pillars, with cedar-beams upon the pillars.

[3] So called from ſome reſemblance it might have to that place, by reaſon of the pleaſant Shades and Groves that were about it.

† Heb. ribs.

3 And it was covered with cedar above upon the † beams, that lay on forty five pillars, fifteen in a row.

† Heb. ſight againſt ſight.

4 And there were windows in three rows, and † light was againſt light in three ranks.

‖ Or, ſpaces & pillars were ſquare in proſpect.

5 And all the ‖ doors and poſts were ſquare, with the windows: and light was againſt light in three ranks.

‖ Or, according to them.

6 ¶ And he made a porch of pillars; the length thereof was fifty cubits, and the breadth thereof thirty cubits: and the porch was ‖ before them: and the other pillars and the thick beam were ‖ before them.

‖ Or, according to them.

† Heb. from floor to floor.

7 ¶ Then he made a porch for the [4] throne where he might judge, even the porch of [5] judgment: and it was covered with cedar † from one ſide of the floor to the other.

[4] *Ch.*10.18. *Pſal.*122.5. ¶ [5] *ch.*3.16,28. *Prov.*20. 8.

[6] 2 *King.*20.4.

8 ¶ And his houſe where he dwelt had [6] another court within the porch, which was of the like work. Solomon made alſo a houſe for [7] Pharaohs daughter, (whom he had taken to wife) like unto this porch.

[7] *ch.*3.1. 2 Chron. 8. 11.

9 All theſe were of [8] coſtly ſtones, according to the meaſures of hewed ſtones, ſawed with ſaws, [9] within and without, even from the foundation unto the coping, and ſo on the out-ſide toward the great court.

[8] *Ch.*5.17. ¶ [9] Both on the inſide of the buildings, (which were covered with Cedar) and on the outſide alſo.

10 And the foundation was of coſtly ſtones, even great ſtones; ſtones of ten cubits, and ſtones of eight cubits.

11 And above were coſtly ſtones (after the meaſures of hewed ſtones) and cedars.

Chap. 7.

12 And the great court round about, was with [10] three rows of hewed ſtones, and a row of cedar-beams, both for the inner court of the houſe of the LORD, and for the porch of the houſe.

[10] *ch.*6. 36.

13 ¶ And king Solomon ſent and fet * Hiram out of Tyre.

* 2 Chron. 2. 11. Huram. See Verſ. 40.

14 * He was † a widows ſon of the tribe of [11] Naphtali, and [12] his father was a man of Tyre, a worker in [13] braſs: and * he was filled with [14] wiſdom and underſtanding, and cunning to work all works in braſs, and he came to king Solomon and wrought all his work.

* 2 Chr. 2. 14. † Heb. the ſon of a widow woman. * Exod.31.3.

[11] By reaſon of her Husband, who was of that Tribe. ¶ [12] His Foſter-father, who taught him his skill. ¶ [13] 2 Chr. 2.14. ¶ [14] *Exod.*31.3. and 35.35. and 36.1. *Iſa.*28.16. Dan. 1.17. Luke 2.40. Job 35. 11.

† Heb. faſhioned. * 2 King.25.17 2 *Chron.*4.12. Jer. 52.21.

15 For he † caſt * two [15] pillars of braſs, of eighteen cubits high apiece: and a line of twelve cubits did compaſs either of them about.

16 And he made two chapiters of molten braſs, to ſet upon the tops of the pillars: the height of the one chapiter was five cubits, and the height of the other chapiter was five cubits.

17 And nets of checker-work, and wreaths of chain-work, for the chapiters which were upon the top of the pillars; ſeven for the one chapiter, and ſeven for the other chapiter.

18 And he made the pillars, and two rows round about upon the one net-work, to cover the chapiters that were upon the top, with pomegranates: and ſo did he for the other chapiter.

19 And the chapiters that were upon the top of the pillars, were of lilie-work in the porch, four cubits.

20 And the chapiters upon the two pillars had pomegranates alſo above over againſt the belly which was by the net-work: and the pomegranates were * two hundred, in rows round about upon the other chapiter.

* See † Cor. 3.16. & 4.13. Jer. 52.23.

21 And he ſet up the [16] pillars in the porch of the temple: and he ſet up the right pillar, and called the name thereof ‖ [17] Jachin: and he ſet up the left pillar, and called the name thereof ‖ [17] Boaz.

‖ That is, He ſhall eſtabliſh. ‖ That is, In it is ſtrength.

[16] 2 *Chron.*3.17. *Rev.*3.12. Cant. 3. 10. ¶ [17] Signifying, He ſhall eſtabliſh: and In it is ſtrength. Theſe were types and documents of that ſtrength that was in God, and would be put forth for the defending and eſtabliſhing his Temple and People, if they were careful to keep the conditions required on their parts.

22 And upon the top of the pillars was lilie-work: ſo was the work of the pillars finiſhed.

† Heb. from his brim to his brim.

23 ¶ And he made a [18] molten ſea, ten cubits † from the one brim to the other: it was round all about, and his height was five cubits: and a line of [19] thirty cubits did compaſs it round about.

[18] 2 *Chron.*4.2. *Exod.*30.19,20. *Jer.*52.17. ¶ [19] Fifty four feet nine inches; the Diameter whereof was above ſixteen feet.

24 And under the brim of it round about there were knops compaſſing it, ten in a cubit, * compaſſing the ſea round about: the knops were caſt in two rows, when it was caſt.

* 2 Chr. 4.3.

25 It ſtood upon * twelve oxen, three looking toward the north, and three looking toward the weſt, and three looking toward the ſouth, and three looking toward the eaſt: and the ſea was ſet above upon them, and all their hinder parts were inward.

* Jer.52.20.

26 And it was an hand-breadth thick, and the brim thereof was wrought like the brim of a cup, with flowers of lilies; it [20] contained [21] two thouſand baths.

Chap. 7.

[20] Viz. As they uſually filled it; for it would hold three thouſand Baths in all, 2 Chron. 4. 5. ¶ [21] Near three hundred Hogſheads.

27 ¶ And he made ten baſes of braſs; four cubits was the length of one baſe, and four cubits the breadth thereof, and three cubits the height of it.

28 And the work of the baſes was on this manner: They had borders, and the borders were between the ledges:

29 And on the borders that were between the ledges were lions, oxen, and cherubims: and upon the ledges, there was a baſe above: and beneath the lions and oxen were certain additions made of thin work.

30 And every baſe had four brazen wheels, and plates of braſs: and the four corners thereof had underſetters: under the laver were underſetters molten, at the ſide of every addition.

31 And the mouth of it within the chapiter and above was a cubit, but the mouth thereof was round after the work of the baſe, a cubit and an half: and alſo upon the mouth of it were gravings with their borders, four-ſquare, not round.

32 And under the borders were four wheels: and the axle-trees of the wheels were † joyned to the baſe, and the height of a wheel was a cubit and half a cubit.

† Heb. in the baſe.

33 And the work of the wheels was like the work of a chariot-wheel: their axle-trees and their naves, and their fellóes, and their ſpokes were all molten.

34 And there were four underſetters to the four corners of one baſe: and the underſetters were of the very baſe it ſelf.

35 And in the top of the baſe was there a round compaſs of half a cubit high: and on the top of the baſe, the ledges thereof, and the borders thereof were of the ſame.

36 For on the plates of the ledges thereof, and on the borders thereof, he graved cherubims, lions, and palm-trees, according to the † proportion of every one, and additions round about.

† Heb. nakedneſs.

37 After this manner he made the ten baſes: all of them had one caſting, one meaſure, and one ciſe.

[*] 2 Chron. 4. 6.

38 ¶ Then * made he ten [22] lavers of braſs: one laver contained [23] forty baths: and every laver was four cubits: and upon every one of the ten baſes, one laver.

[22] Wherein they waſh'd the parts of the Sacrifices. ¶ [23] Almoſt ſix Hogſheads.

39 And he put five baſes on the right † ſide of the houſe, and five on the left ſide of the houſe: and he ſet the ſea on the right ſide of the houſe eaſt-ward, over againſt the ſouth.

† Heb. Hirom. See Verſ. 13.

40 ¶ And † Hiram made the lavers, and the ſhovels, and the baſons: ſo Hiram made an end of doing all the work that he made king Solomon for the houſe of the LORD.

† Heb. upon the face of the pillars.

43 And the ten baſes, and ten lavers on the baſes:

44 And one ſea, and twelve oxen under the ſea: Chap. 8.

45 And the pots, and the ſhovels, and the baſons: and all theſe veſſels which Hiram made to king Solomon, for the houſe of the LORD, were of † bright braſs.

† Heb. made bright, or ſcoured.

46 In the plain of Jordan did the king caſt them † in the clay-ground, between Succoth and Zarthan.

† Heb. in the thickneſs of the ground.

47 And Solomon left all the veſſels unweighed, † becauſe they were exceeding many: neither was the weight of the braſs † found out.

† Heb. for the exceeding multitude.

48 And Solomon made all the [24] veſſels that pertained unto the houſe of the LORD: the altar of gold, and the table of gold, whereupon * the ſhew-bread was,

† Heb. oſbpans.

51 So was ended all the work that king Solomon made for the houſe of the LORD: and Solomon brought in the † things, which David his father had [26] dedicated; even the ſilver, and the gold, and the veſſels did he put among the treaſures of the houſe of the LORD.

4 And it came to paſs when king Jeroboam heard the ſaying of the man of God, which had cried againſt the altar in Beth-el, that he [9] put forth his hand from the altar, ſaying, Lay hold on him. And his hand which he put forth againſt him, dried up, ſo that he could not pull it in again to him.

6 And the king anſwered and ſaid unto the man of God, * [10] Intreat now the [11] face of the LORD [12] thy God, and pray for me, that my hand may be reſtored me again. And the man of God [13] beſought † the LORD, and the king's hand was [14] reſtored him again, and became as it was before.

12 And their father said unto them, What way went he? for his sons had seen what way the man of God went, which came from Judah.

13 And he said unto his sons, Saddle me the ass. So they saddled him the ass, and he rode thereon,

14 And went after the man of God, and found him sitting under an oak; and he said unto him, Art thou the man of God that camest from Judah? And he said, I am.

22 But camest back, and hast eaten bread, and drunk water in the place of the which the LORD [27] did say to thee, Eat no bread, and drink no water; thy carcase shall [28] not come unto the sepulchre of thy fathers.

1 Jehu's prophecy againſt Baaſha. 8 Zimri's conſpiracy. 25 Ahab's wicked reign. 34 Joſhua's curſe upon Hiel the builder of Jericho.

THen the word of the LORD came to [1] Jehu the ſon of Hanani, againſt Baaſha, ſaying,

2 Foraſmuch as I exalted thee out of the [2] duſt, and made thee prince over my people Iſrael, and thou haſt walked in the way of Jeroboam, and haſt made my people Iſrael to ſin, [3] to provoke me to anger with their ſins.

3 Behold, I will * take away the poſterity of Baaſha, and the poſterity of his houſe: and will make thy houſe [4] like the houſe of Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat.

4 [5] Him that dieth of Baaſha in the city, ſhall the dogs eat: and him that dieth of his in the fields, ſhall the fowls of the air eat.

[5] The ſame Judgment in the ſame words is threatned againſt Baaſha here, that was againſt Jeroboam (*ch.*14.10,11.) becauſe he perſiſted in the ſame ſin.

5 Now the reſt of the acts of Baaſha, and what he did, and his might, * are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Iſrael?

6 So Baaſha ſlept with his fathers, and was buried in Tirzah, and Elah his ſon reigned in his ſtead.

7 And alſo by the [6] hand of the prophet Jehu the ſon of Hanani, came the word of the LORD againſt Baaſha, and againſt his houſe, even for all the evil that he did in the ſight of the LORD, in provoking him to anger with the [7] work of his hands, in being like the houſe of Jeroboam, and becauſe * he [8] killed him.

[6] Miniſtry (as *ch.*8.53.) ¶ [7] Idols, (as *Pſal.*115.4. Iſa. 2.8.) ¶ [8] Treacherouſly ſlew Nadab, Jeroboam's ſon, ch. 15. 27.

3074. 8 ¶ In the twenty and ſixth year of Aſa king of Judah, began Elah the ſon of Baaſha to reign over Iſrael in Tirzah, two years.

9 And his ſervant Zimri (captain of half his chariots) [9] conſpired againſt him as he was in Tirzah, drinking himſelf [10] drunk in the houſe of Arza † ſteward of his houſe in Tirzah.

[9] *Ch.*15.27. ¶ [10] 2 Sam. 13.28,29. Dan. 5. 2,30.

3075. 10 And * Zimri went in and ſmote him, and killed him, in the twenty and ſeventh year of Aſa king of Judah, and reigned in his ſtead.

11 ¶ And it came to paſs when he began to reign, aſſoon as he ſat on his throne, that he ſlew all the houſe of Baaſha: he left him * not one that [11] piſſeth againſt a wall, ‖ neither of his kinsfolks, nor of his friends.

12 Thus did Zimri deſtroy all the houſe of Baaſha, according to the word of the LORD, which he ſpake againſt Baaſha † by [1] Jehu the prophet;

13 For all the ſins of Baaſha, and the ſins of Elah his ſon, by which they ſinned, and by which they made Iſrael to ſin, in provoking the LORD God of Iſrael to anger with their * [12] vanities.

[12] Idols, Deut. 32.21. 2 King. 17.15. *Iſa.*41.28. 1 Cor. 8.4.

14 Now the reſt of the acts of Elah, and all that he did, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Iſrael?

15 ¶ In the twenty and ſeventh year of Aſa king of Judah, did Zimri reign ſeven days in Tirzah, and * the people were encamped againſt Gibbethon, which belonged to the Philiſtines.

16 And the people that were encamped heard ſay, Zimri hath conſpired, and hath alſo ſlain the king: wherefore all Iſrael made Omri the captain of the hoſt, king over Iſrael that day in the camp.

17 And Omri went up from Gibbethon, and all Iſrael with him, and they beſieged Tirzah.

18 And it came to paſs when Zimri ſaw that the city was taken, that he went into the palace of the kings houſe, and burnt the kings houſe over him with fire, and died;

19 For his ſins which he ſinned in doing evil in the ſight of the LORD, in walking in the way of Jeroboam, and in his ſin which he did, to make Iſrael ſin.

20 Now the reſt of the acts of Zimri, and his treaſon that he wrought, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Iſrael?

21 ¶ Then were the people of Iſrael divided into two parts: half of the people followed Tibni the ſon of Ginath, to make him king: and half followed Omri.

22 But the people that followed Omri prevailed againſt the people that followed Tibni the ſon of Ginath: ſo Tibni died and Omri reigned.

23 ¶ In the thirty and one year of Aſa king of Judah, began Omri to reign over Iſrael twelve years: ſix years reigned he in Tirzah. 3079.

24 And he bought the hill Samaria of Shemer, for [13] two talents of ſilver, and built on the hill, and called the name of the city which he built, after the name of Shemer, owner of the hill, † * Samaria. 3080.

27 Now the reſt of the acts of Omri, which he did, and his might that he ſhewed, are they not written in the book of the chronicles of the kings of Iſrael?

28 So Omri ſlept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria, and Ahab his ſon reigned in his ſtead. 3086.

29 ¶ And in the thirty and eighth year of Aſa king of Judah, began Ahab the ſon of Omri to reign over Iſrael; and Ahab the ſon of Omri reigned over Iſrael in Samaria, twenty and two years.

30 And Ahab the ſon of Omri did evil in the ſight of the LORD, [15] above all that were before him.

31 And it came to paſs, † as if it had been a light thing for him to walk in the ſins of Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat; that he took to wife [16] Jezebel the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Zidonians, and went and ſerved Baal, and worſhiped him.

AND they continued three years without war between Syria and Israel.

2 And it came to pass in the third year that Jehoshaphat the king of Judah [1] came down to the king of Israel.

† Heb. silent from taking it.

4 And he said unto Jehoshaphat, [2] Wilt thou go with me to battel to Ramoth-gilead? and Jehoshaphat said to the king of Israel, [3] I am as thou art, my people as thy people, my horses as thy horses.

[4] Judg. 1.1. & 20.28. 1 *Sam.*23.2.

6 Then the king of Israel gathered [5] the prophets together about four hundred men, and said unto them, Shall I go against Ramoth-gilead to battel, or shall I forbear? And they said, Go up: for the [6] LORD shall [7] deliver it into the hand of the king.

8 And the king of Israel said unto Jehoshaphat, There is yet one man (Micaiah the son of Imlah) by whom we may [8] enquire of the LORD; but [9] I hate him, for he doth not prophesie [10] good concerning me, but evil. And Jehoshaphat said, [11] Let not the king say so.

12 And all the prophets prophesied so, saying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and prosper: for the LORD shall deliver it into the kings hand.

13 And the messenger that was gone to call Micaiah, spake unto him, saying, Behold now, the words of the prophets declare good unto the king with [16] one mouth: let thy word, I pray thee, be like the word of one of them, and speak that which is good.

[20] Charge thee as by a solemn Oath. See on *Matth.*26.63. ¶ [21] Which thou hast received from him.

17 And he said, [22] I saw all [23] Israel scattered upon the hills, as sheep that have not a shepherd: and the LORD said, These have no master, let them [24] return every man to his house [25] in peace.

10 So they came and called unto the porter of the city: and they told them, saying, We came to the camp of the Syrians, and behold, there was no man there, neither voice of man, but horses tied, and asses tied, and the tents as they were.

11 And he called the porters, and they told it to the kings house within.

12 ¶ And the king arose in the night, and said unto his [13] servants, I will now shew you what the Syrians have done to us: they know that we be hungry, therefore are they gone out of the camp, to hide themselves in the field, saying, When they come out of the city, we shall catch them alive, and get into the city.

14 They took therefore two chariot-horses, and the king sent after the host of the Syrians, saying, Go, and see.

15 And they went after them unto Jordan, and lo, all the way was full of garments and vessels, which the Syrians had cast away in their haste: and the messengers returned, and told the king.

16 And the people went out, and spoiled the tents of the Syrians. So a measure of fine flour was sold for a shekel, and two measures of barley for a shekel, according to the word of the LORD.

17 ¶ And the king appointed the lord on whose hand he leaned, to have the charge of the gate: and the people trode upon him in the gate, and he died, as the man of God had said, who spake when the king came down to him.

18 And it came to pass, as the man of God had spoken to the king, saying, * Two measures of barley for a shekel, and a measure of fine flour for a shekel, shall be to morrow about this time in the gate of Samaria:

19 And that LORD answered the man of God, and said, Now behold, if the LORD should make windows in heaven, might such a thing be? And he said, Behold, thou shalt see it with thine eyes, but shalt not eat thereof.

3262. IN the seventeenth year of Pekah the son of Remaliah, Ahaz the son of Jotham king of Judah began to reign.

2 [1] Twenty years old was Ahaz when he began to reign, and reigned sixteen years in Jerusalem, and did not that which was right in the sight of the LORD his God, like David his father.

3 But he walked in the way of the kings of Israel, yea, and made his son to [2] pass through the fire, according to the abominations of the heathen, whom the LORD cast out from before the children of Israel.

4 And he sacrificed and burnt incense in the high places, and on the [3] hills, and under every [3] green tree.

3262. 5 ¶ Then Rezin king of Syria, and Pekah son of Remaliah king of Israel, came up to Jerusalem to war: and they besieged Ahaz, but [4] could not overcome him.

6 At that time Rezin king of Syria recovered * Elath to Syria, and drave the Jews from † Elath: and the Syrians came to Elath, and dwelt there unto this day.

3264. 7 So Ahaz sent messengers to † Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, saying, I am thy [5] servant, and thy [6] son; come up, and save me out of the hand of the king of Syria, and out of the hand of the king of Israel, which rise up against me.

8 And Ahaz [7] took the silver and gold that was found in the house of the LORD, and in the treasures of the kings house, and sent it for a present to the king of Assyria.

9 And the king of Assyria hearkened unto him: for the king of Assyria went up against † Damascus, and * [8] took it, and carried the people of it captive to Kir, and slew Rezin.

10 ¶ And king Ahaz went to Damascus, to meet Tiglath-pileser king of Assyria, and saw an altar that was at Damascus: and king Ahaz sent to Urijah the priest the fashion of the altar, and the pattern of it, according to all the workmanship thereof.

11 And Urijah the priest built an altar according to all that king Ahaz had sent from Damascus: so Urijah the priest [9] made it, against king Ahaz came from Damascus.

12 And when the king was come from Damascus, the king saw the altar: and * the king approached to the altar, and [10] offered thereon.

24 ¶ And the king of Assyria [36] brought men * from Babylon, and from Cuthah, and from * Ava, and from Hamath, and from Sepharvaim, and placed them in the cities of Samaria, in stead of the children of Israel; and they possessed Samaria, and dwelt in the cities thereof.

26 Wherefore they spake to the king of Assyria, saying, The nations which thou hast removed, and placed in the cities of Samaria, know not the manner of the God of the land: therefore he hath sent lions among them, and behold, they slay them, because they know not the manner of the God of the land.

27 Then the king of Assyria commanded, saying, Carry thither [38] one of the priests whom ye brought from thence, and let them go and dwell there, and let him teach them the manner of the God of the land

28 Then one of the priests whom they had carried away from Samaria, came and dwelt in Bethel, and [39] taught them how they should fear the LORD.

[39] Instructed them in some of the principles of the knowledg and worship of God, as it was practis'd in Israel.

31 And the Avites made Nibhaz and Tartak, and the Sepharvites burnt their children in fire to Adrammelech and Anammelech the gods of Sepharvaim.

The ARGUMENT.

THese two Books contain something concerning the State of the Church from the beginning of the World till after the Babylonish Captivity, (and therefore probably were written at that time by Ezra, 2 Chron. 36. 22, 23. with Ezra 1. 1,2,3. See also on 1 Chron. 6.10.) The design whereof is chiefly to give an exact account of the Genealogies, especially of the Church, from Adam downwards; that so it might certainly be known of what Tribe and Family Christ, the promised Seed, was: which therefore Matthew, but Luke especially, make use of to this purpose.

12 And said unto them, Ye are the chief of the fathers of the Levites: [4] sanctifie your selves both ye and your brethren, that ye may bring up the ark of the LORD God of Israel unto the place that I have prepared for it.

25 ¶ So * David and the elders of Israel, and the captains over thousands, went to bring up the ark of the covenant of the LORD, out of the house of Obed-edom with joy.

28 Thus all Israel brought up the ark of the covenant of the LORD with shouting and with sound of the cornet, and with trumpets, and with cymbals, making a noise with psalteries and harps.

[1] See on 2 *Sam.*7.2,3.

2 Then Nathan said unto David, Do all that is in thine heart, for God is with thee.

3 ¶ And it came to pass the same night, that the word of God came to Nathan, saying,

4 Go and tell David my servant, Thus saith the LORD, Thou shalt not build me an house to dwell in.

9 Also I will ordain [4] a place for my people Israel, and will plant them, and they shall dwell in their place, and shall be moved [5] no more; neither shall the children of wickedness waste them any more: (as at the beginning,

10 And since the time that I commanded judges to be over my people Israel) moreover I will [6] subdue all thine enemies. Furthermore, I tell thee that the LORD will [7] build thee an house.

11 ¶ And it shall come to pass, when thy days be expired that thou must go to be with thy fathers, that I will raise up thy seed after thee, which shall be of thy sons, and I will establish his kingdom.

12 He shall build me an house, and I will stablish his throne [8] for ever.

20 O LORD, there is [13] none like thee, neither is there any God besides thee, according to all that we have heard with our ears.

[14] See on 2 Sam. 7. 22, 23, 24.

21 And what one nation in the earth is [14] like thy people Israel, whom God [14] went to redeem to be his own people, to [14] make thee a name of greatness and [14] terribleness, by driving out nations from before thy people whom thou hast redeemed out of Egypt?

22 For thy people [14] Israel didst thou make thine own people for ever, and thou, LORD, becamest [14] their God.

23 Therefore now, LORD, let the thing that thou hast spoken concerning thy servant, and concerning his house, be established for ever, and do as thou hast said.

24 Let it even be established, that thy name may be magnified for ever, saying, The LORD of hosts is the God of Israel, even a God to Israel: and let the house of David thy servant be established before thee.

† Heb. hast revealed the ear of thy servant.

25 For thou, O my God, † hast told thy servant that thou wilt build him an house: therefore thy servant hath found in his heart to pray before thee.

Chap. 18.

26 And now, LORD (thou art God, and hast promised this goodness unto thy servant.)

27 Now therefore ‖ let it please thee to bless the house of thy servant, that it may be before thee for ever: for thou [15] blessest, O LORD, and [16] it shall be blessed for ever.

1 David subdueth the Philistines and the Moabites.
3 He smiteth Hadarezer and the Syrians.

1 NOw after this it came to pass that David [1] smote the Philistines, and subdued them, and took Gath and her towns out of the hand of the Philistines.

2 And he smote Moab; and the Moabites became Davids [2] servants, and brought gifts.

3 ¶ And David smote ‖ Hadarezer king of Zobah unto Hamath, as he went to establish his dominion by the river Euphrates.

‖ Or, Hadadezer, in Sam.

4 And David took from him a thousand chariots, and seven thousaud horsemen, and twenty thousand footmen: David also houghed all the chariot-horses, but reserved of them an hundred chariots.

5 And when the Syrians of † Damascus came to help Hadarezer king of Zobah, David slew of the Syrians two and twenty thousand men.

† Heb Darmesek.

6 Then David put garisons in Syria-damascus, and the Syrians became Davids servants, and brought gifts. Thus the LORD preserved David whithersoever he went.

7 And David took the shields of gold that were on the servants of Hadarezer, and brought them to Jerusalem.

1 See on 2 Sam. 10.

1 NOw it came to paſs after this that Nahaſh the king of the children of Ammon died, and his ſon reigned in his ſtead.

2 And David ſaid, I will ſhew kindneſs unto Hanun the ſon of Nahaſh, becauſe his father ſhewed kindneſs to me. And David ſent meſſengers to comfort him concerning his father. So the ſervants of David came into the land of the children of Ammon, to Hanun, to comfort him.

3 But the princes of the children of Ammon ſaid to Hanun, † Thinkeſt thou that David doth honour thy father, that he hath ſent comforters unto thee? are not his ſervants come unto thee for to ſearch, and to overthrow, and to ſpie out the land?

4 Wherefore Hanun took Davids ſervants, and ſhaved them, and cut off their garments in the midſt hard by their buttocks, and ſent them away.

5 Then there went certain, and told David how the men were ſerved. And he ſent to meet them: for the men were greatly aſhamed. And the king ſaid, Tarry at Jericho until your beards be grown, and then return.

† Heb. to ſtink.

6 ¶ And when the children of Ammon ſaw that they had made themſelves † odious to David, Hanun and the children of Ammon ſent a [2] thouſand talents of ſilver to hire them chariots and horſemen out of Meſopotamia, and out of Syria-maachah, and out of Zobah.

7 So they hired thirty and two thouſand [3] chariots, and the king of Maachah and his people; who came and pitched before Medeba. And the children of Ammon gathered themſelves together from their cities, and came to battel.

8 And when David heard of it, he ſent Joab, and all the hoſt of the mighty men.

9 And the children of Ammon came out, and put the battel in aray before the gate of the city: and the kings that were come were by themſelves in the field.

† Heb. the face of the battel was. ‖ Or, young men.

12 And he ſaid, If the Syrians be too ſtrong for me, then thou ſhalt help me: but if the children of Ammon be too ſtrong for thee, then I will help thee.

13 Be of good courage, and let us behave our ſelves valiantly for our people, and for the cities of our God: and let the LORD do that which is good in his ſight.

14 So Joab and the people that were with him, drew nigh before the Syrians unto the battel; and they fled before him.

Chap. 20.

15 And when the children of Ammon ſaw that the Syrians were fled, they likewiſe fled before Abiſhai his brother, and entred into the city. Then Joab came to Jeruſalem.

16 ¶ And when the Syrians ſaw that they were put to the worſe before Iſrael, they ſent meſſengers, and drew forth the Syrians that were beyond the ‖ river: and ‖ Shophach the captain of the hoſt of Hadarezer went before them.

17 And it was told David; and he gathered all Iſrael, and paſſed over Jordan, and came upon them, and ſet the battel in aray againſt them. So when David had put the battel in aray againſt the Syrians, they fought with him.

18 But the Syrians fled before Iſrael; and David ſlew of the Syrians ſeven thouſand men which fought in [4] chariots, and [5] forty thouſand footmen, and killed Shophiach the captain of the hoſt.

2 And David said to Joab, and to the rulers of the people, [3] Go number Israel from Beer-sheba even to Dan; and bring the number of them to me, that I may know it.

[3] This was without any necessity or good occasion, but only out of vain glory, ostentation, pride, and carnal confidence.

3 And Joab answered, The LORD make his people an hundred times so many mo as they be: but my lord the king, are they not all my lords [4] servants? why then doth my lord require this thing? why will he be a cause of [5] trespass to Israel?

27 Then hear thou from heaven, and forgive the sin of thy servants, and of thy people Israel, when thou hast taught them the good way, wherein they should walk; and send rain upon thy land which thou hast given unto thy people for an inheritance:

28 ¶ If there be [5] dearth in the land, if there be pestilence, if there be blasting, or mildew, locusts, or caterpillars; if their enemies be-† siege them † in the cities of their land; whatsoever sore, or whatsoever sickness there be:

29 Then what prayer or what supplication soever shall be made of any man, or of all thy people Israel, when every one shall know his own sore, and his own [6] grief, and shall spread forth his hands ‖ in this house:

30 Then hear thou from heaven thy dwelling-place, and forgive, and render unto every man according unto all his ways, whose heart thou [7] knowest: (for thou only knowest the hearts of the children of men)

31 That they may fear thee, to walk in thy ways † so long as they live † in the land which thou gavest unto our fathers.

32 ¶ Moreover, concerning the stranger, which is [8] not of thy people Israel, but is come from a far country for thy great names sake, and thy mighty hand, and thy stretched out arm; if they come and pray in this house:

Chap. 7.

33 Then hear thou from the heavens, even from thy dwelling-place, and do according to all that the stranger calleth to thee for; that all people of the earth may know thy name, and fear thee, as doth thy people Israel, and may know that † this house which I have built, is called by thy name.

34 If thy people go out to war against their enemies by the way that thou shalt send them, and they pray unto thee towards this city which thou hast chosen, and the house which I have built for thy name:

35 Then hear thou from the heavens their prayer and their supplication, and maintain their ‖ cause.

36 If they sin against thee, (for * there is no man which sinneth not) and thou be angry with them, and deliver them over before their enemies, and † they carry them away captives unto a land far off or near;

37 Yet, if they † bethink themselves in the land whither they are carried captive, and turn and pray unto thee in the land of their captivity, saying, We have sinned, we have done amiss, and have dealt wickedly;

38 If they return to thee with all their heart and with all their soul, in the land of their captivity, whither they have carried them captives, and pray toward their land which thou gavest unto their fathers, and toward the city which thou hast chosen, and toward the house which I have built for thy name:

39 Then hear thou from the heavens, even from thy dwelling-place, their prayer and their supplications, and maintain their ‖ cause, and forgive thy people which have sinned against thee.

40 Now, my God, let (I beseech thee) thine eyes be open, and let thine ears be attent †; unto the prayer that is made in this place.

41 Now therefore [9] arise, O LORD God, into thy [10] resting-place, thou, [11] and the ark of thy strength: let thy priests, O LORD God, be [12] clothed with salvation, and let thy saints rejoyce in [14] goodness.

42 O LORD God, [15] turn not away the face of thine anointed: remember the [16] mercies of David thy servant.

* 1 King. 9, 10. &c. See there.

2 That the cities which Huram had restored to Solomon, Solomon built them, and caused the children of Israel to dwell there. 3012.

3 And Solomon went to Hamath-zobah, and prevailed against it.

4 And he built Tadmor in the wilderness, and all the store-cities, which he built in Hamath.

5 Also he built Beth-horon the upper, and Beth-horon the nether, fenced cities, with walls, gates, and bars:

6 And Baalath, and all the store-cities that Solomon had, and all the chariot-cities, and the cities of the horsemen, and † * all that Solomon desired to build in Jerusalem, and in Lebanon, and throughout all the land of his dominion.

9 But of the children of Israel did Solomon make no servants for his work: but they were men of war, and chief of his captains, and captains of his chariots and horsemen.

10 And these were the chief of king Solomons officers, even two hundred and fifty that bare rule over the people.

12 ¶ Then Solomon offered burnt-offerings unto the LORD, on the altar of the LORD, which he had built before the porch:

[4] Kings are to see that the Priests do their duty.

16 Now all the work of Solomon was prepared unto the day of the foundation of the house of the LORD, and untill it was finished: so the house of the LORD was perfected.

17 ¶ Then went Solomon to Ezion-geber, and to ‖ Eloth, at the sea-side in the land of Edom.

AND [1] * when the queen of Sheba heard of the fame of Solomon, she came to prove Solomon with hard questions at Jerusalem, with a very great company, and camels that bare spices, and gold in abundance, and precious stones: and when she was come to Solomon, she communed with him of all that was in her heart.

2 And Solomon told her all her questions: and there was nothing hid from Solomon which he told her not.

3 And when the queen of Sheba had seen the wisdom of Solomon, and the house that he had built,

6 Howbeit, I believed not their words, until I came, and mine eyes had seen it: and behold, the one half of the greatness of thy wisdom was not told me: for thou exceedest the fame that I heard. Chap. 9.

7 Happy are thy men, and happy are these thy servants, which stand continually before thee, and hear thy wisdom.

8 Blessed be the LORD thy God, which delighted in thee to set thee on his throne, to be king [2] for the LORD thy God: because thy God [3] loved Israel, to establish them for ever, [3] therefore made he thee king over them, to do judgment and justice.

9 And she gave the king an hundred and twenty talents of gold, and of spices great abundance, and precious stones: neither was there any such spices as the queen of Sheba gave king Solomon.

10 And the servants also of Huram, and the servants of Solomon, which brought gold from Ophir, brought algum-trees, and precious stones.

[4] q. d. Besides what he gave her in gifts of the same kind with those which she had given him (viz. gold, spices, &c.) he gave her also other things that were great rarities to her.

13 ¶ Now the weight of gold that came to Solomon in one year was six hundred and threescore and six talents of gold;

14 Besides that which chapmen and merchants brought. And all the kings of Arabia and ‖ governours of the country brought gold and silver to Solomon.

15 ¶ And king Solomon made two hundred targets of beaten gold: six hundred shekels of beaten gold went to one target.

16 And three hundred shields made he of beaten gold: three hundred shekels of gold went to one shield. And the king put them in the house of the forest of Lebanon.

1 Rehoboam refuſing the old mens counſel, 16 Ten tribes revolt, and he fleeth.

AND [1] Rehoboam went to Shechem: for to Shechem were all Iſrael come to make him king.

* 1 King. 11. 40

2 And it came to paſs when Jeroboam the ſon of Nebat (who was in Egypt, * whither he had fled from the preſence of Solomon the king) heard it, that Jeroboam returned out of Egypt.

3 And they ſent and called him: ſo Jeroboam and all Iſrael came and ſpake to Rehoboam, ſaying,

4 Thy fathers made our yoke grievous, now therefore eaſe thou ſomewhat the grievous ſervitude of thy father, and his heavy yoke that he put upon us, and we will ſerve thee.

5 And he ſaid unto them, Come again unto me after three days. And the people departed.

6 ¶ And king Rehoboam took counſel with the old men that had ſtood before Solomon his father, while he yet lived, ſaying, What counſel give ye me, to return anſwer to this people?

7 And they ſpake unto him, ſaying, If thou be kind to this people, and pleaſe them, and ſpeak good words to them, they will be thy ſervants for ever.

8 But he forſook the counſel which the old men gave him, and took counſel with the young men that were brought up with him, that ſtood before him.

9 And he ſaid unto them, What advice give ye, that we may return anſwer to this people, which have ſpoken to me, ſaying, Eaſe ſomewhat the yoke that thy father did put upon us?

10 And the young men that were brought up with him, ſpake unto him, ſaying, Thus ſhalt thou anſwer the people that ſpake unto thee, ſaying, Thy father made our yoke heavy, but make thou it ſomewhat lighter for us; thus ſhalt thou ſay unto them, My little finger ſhall be thicker then my fathers loins.

13 And the king anſwered them roughly: and king Rehoboam forſook the counſel of the old men,

14 And anſwered them after the advice of the young men, ſaying, My father made your yoke heavy, but I will add thereto: my father chaſtiſed you with whips, but I will chaſtiſe you with ſcorpions.

So all Iſrael went to their tents.

17 But as for the children of Iſrael that dwelt in the cities of Judah, Rehoboam reigned over them.

18 Then king Rehoboam ſent Hadoram that was over the tribute; and the children of Iſrael ſtoned him with ſtones, that he died. But king Rehoboam † made ſpeed to get him up to his chariot, to flee to Jeruſalem.

2 But the word of the LORD came to Shemaiah the man of God, ſaying,

4 Thus ſaith the LORD, Ye ſhall not go up, nor fight againſt your brethren: return every man to his houſe, for this thing is done of me. And they obeyed the words of the LORD, and returned from going againſt Jeroboam.

2 * And † after certain years he went down to Ahab to Samaria. And Ahab killed ſheep and oxen for him in abundance, and for the people that he had with him, and perſwaded him to go up with him to Ramoth-gilead.

3 And Ahab king of Iſrael ſaid unto Jehoſhaphat king of Judah, [2] Wilt thou go with me to Ramoth-gilead? And he anſwered him, I am as thou art, and my people as thy people; and we will be with thee in the war.

4 ¶ And Jehoſhaphat ſaid unto the king of Iſrael, * Enquire, I pray thee, at the word of the LORD to day.

5 Therefore the king of Iſrael gathered together of prophets four hundred men, and ſaid unto them, Shall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battel, or ſhall I forbear? And they ſaid, Go up? for God will deliver it into the kings hand.

6 But Jehoſhaphat ſaid, Is there not here a prophet of the LORD † beſides, that we might require of him?

7 And the king of Iſrael ſaid unto Jehoſhaphat, There is yet one man by whom we may enquire of the LORD: but I hate him; for he never propheſieth good unto me, but always evil: the ſame is Micaiah the ſon of Imla. And Jehoſhaphat ſaid, Let not the king ſay ſo.

3107.

8 And the king of Iſrael called for one of his ‖ officers, and ſaid, † Fetch quickly Micaiah the ſon of Imla.

9 And the king of Iſrael and Jehoſhaphat king of Judah ſat either of them on his throne, clothed in their robes, and they ſat in a ‖ void place at the entring in of the gate of Samaria; and all the prophets propheſied before them.

10 And Zedekiah the ſon of Chenaanah had made him horns of iron, and ſaid, Thus ſaith the LORD, With theſe thou ſhalt puſh Syria until † they be conſumed.

11 And all the prophets propheſied ſo, ſaying, Go up to Ramoth-gilead, and proſper: for the LORD ſhall deliver it into the hand of the king.

12 And the meſſenger that went to call Micaiah ſpake to him, ſaying, Behold, the words of the prophets declare good to the king † with one aſſent: let thy word therefore, I pray thee, be like one of theirs, and ſpeak thou good.

13 And Micaiah ſaid, As the LORD liveth, * even what my God ſaith that will I ſpeak.

14 And when he was come to the king, the king ſaid unto him, Micaiah, ſhall we go to Ramoth-gilead to battel, or ſhall I forbear? And he ſaid, Go ye up, and proſper, and they ſhall be delivered into your hand.

15 And the king ſaid to him, How many times ſhall I adjure thee that thou ſay nothing but the truth to me in the name of the LORD?

16 Then he ſaid, I did ſee all Iſrael ſcattered upon the mountains, as ſheep that have no ſhepherd. And the LORD ſaid, Theſe have no maſter; let them return therefore every man to his houſe in peace.

17 (And the king of Iſrael ſaid to Jehoſhaphat, Did I not tell thee that he would not propheſie good unto me, ‖ but evil?)

18 Again he ſaid, Therefore hear the word of the LORD; I ſaw the LORD ſitting upon his throne, and all the hoſt of heaven ſtanding on his right hand and on his left.

19 And the LORD ſaid, Who ſhall entice Ahab king of Iſrael, that he may go up and fall at Ramoth-gilead? And one ſpake ſaying after this manner, and another ſaying after that manner.

20 Then there came out a * ſpirit, and ſtood before the LORD, and ſaid, I will entice him. And the LORD ſaid unto him, Wherewith?

21 And he ſaid, I will go out, and be a lying ſpirit in the mouth of all his prophets. And the LORD ſaid, Thou ſhalt entice him, and thou ſhalt alſo prevail: go out, and do even ſo.

22 Now therefore behold, * the LORD hath put a lying ſpirit in the mouth of theſe thy prophets, and the LORD hath ſpoken evil againſt thee.

23 Then Zedekiah the ſon of Chenaanah came near, and * ſmote Micaiah upon the cheek, and ſaid, Which way went the ſpirit of the LORD from me to ſpeak unto thee?

24 And Micaiah ſaid, Behold, thou ſhalt ſee on that day, when thou ſhalt go ‖ into † an inner chamber to hide thy ſelf.

25 Then the king of Iſrael ſaid, Take ye Micaiah, and carry him back to Amon the governour of the city, and to Joaſh the kings ſon;

26 And ſay, Thus ſaith the king, Put this fellow in the priſon, and feed him with bread of affliction and with water of affliction, until I return in peace.

27 And Micaiah ſaid, If thou certainly return in peace, then hath not the LORD ſpoken by me. And he ſaid, Hearken, all ye people.

28 So the king of Iſrael and Jehoſhaphat the king of Judah went up to Ramoth-gilead.

29 And the king of Iſrael ſaid unto Jehoſhaphat, I will diſguiſe my ſelf, and will go to the battel, but put thou on thy robes. So the king of Iſrael diſguiſed himſelf, and they went to the battel.

30 Now the king of Syria had commanded the captains of the chariots that were with him, ſaying, Fight ye not with ſmall or great, ſave only with the king of Iſrael.

31 And it came to paſs when the captains of the chariots ſaw Jehoſhaphat, that they ſaid, It is the king of Iſrael. Therefore they compaſſed about him to fight: but Jehoſhaphat cried out, and the LORD helped him, and God moved them to depart from him.

32 For it came to paſs, that when the captains of the chariots perceived that it was not the king of Iſrael, they turned back again † from purſuing him.

33 And a certain man drew a bow † at a venture, and ſmote the king of Iſrael † between the joynts of the harneſs: therefore he ſaid to his chariot-man, Turn thine hand, that thou mayeſt carry me out of the hoſt; for I am † wounded.

34 And the battel increaſed that day: howbeit the king of Iſrael ſtayed himſelf up in his chariot againſt the Syrians until the even: and about the time of the ſun going down he died.

† Heb. from the hand.

6 So the posts went with the letters † from the king and his princes throughout all Israel and Judah, and according to the commandment of the king, saying, Ye children of Israel, turn again unto the LORD God of Abraham, Isaac, and Israel, and [8] he will return to the remnant of you, that are escaped out of the hand of * the kings of Assyria.

[18] *ch.*11.16.

11 Nevertheless [18] divers of Asher and Manasseh, and of Zebulun humbled themselves, and came to Jerusalem.

12 Also in Judah, the [19] hand of God was to give them one heart to do the commandment of the king and of the princes, [20] by the word of the LORD.

18 For a multitude of the people, even * many of Ephraim and Manasseh, Issachar, and Zebulun, had not cleansed themselves, yet did they eat the passover, otherwise then it was written: but Hezekiah [29] prayed for them, saying, The good LORD pardon every one.

25 Because they have forsaken me, and have burned incense unto other gods, that they might provoke me to anger with all the works of their hands; therefore my wrath shall be poured out upon this place, and shall not be quenched.

26 And as for the king of Judah, who sent you to enquire of the LORD, so shall ye say unto him, Thus saith the LORD God of Israel concerning the words which thou hast heard,

27 Because thine heart was tender, and thou didst humble thy self before God, when thou heardest his words against this place, and against the inhabitants thereof, and humbledst thy self before me, and didst rend thy clothes, and weep before me; I have even heard thee also, saith the LORD.

† Heb. offered.

10 So the service was prepared, and the priests stood in their place, and the Levites in their courses, according to the kings commandment.

11 And they killed the passover, and the priests sprinkled the blood from their hands, and the Levites * flayed them.

* See Chap. 29. 34.

12 And they removed the [6] burnt-offerings, [7] that they might give according to the divisions of the families of the people, to offer unto the LORD, as it is written * in the book of Moses: and so did they with the oxen.

† Heb. made them run.

14 And afterward they made ready for themselves, and for the priests: because the priests the sons of Aaron were busied in offering of burnt-offerings and the fat until night; therefore the Levites prepared for themselves and for the priests the sons of Aaron.

15 And the singers the sons of Asaph were in their † place, according to the * commandment of David, and Asaph, and Heman, and Jeduthun the kings seer; and the porters * waited at every gate; they might not depart from their service; for their brethren the Levites prepared for them.

The ARGUMENT.

THis Book (written, doubtless, by Ezra, according to the Title of it) shews the Liberty granted by Cyrus to the Jews, after seventy years captivity, to return to their own Country, ch. 1. whereupon there return'd above forty thousand, most of which were of the two Tribes, but many also of the Ten, ch. 2. and in the first place they restore the Worship of God: and for that end build the Altar of Burnt-offerings, that so they might make daily Expiation for their sins, and Intercession for their wants; and also laid the foundation of the Temple, ch. 3. wherein being oppos'd by the Samaritans, and slanderously accus'd to the King of Persia, they are commanded to desist, (for the present) ch. 4. but afterwards being encourag'd by the Prophets Haggai and Zechary, they proceed in their former work, ch. 5. and obtain a new Commission and Authority, and so proceed to the finishing of it, ch. 6. After this Ezra is sent by Artaxerxes with a large Commission to manage and govern all things for the welfare and interest of the Jews, ch. 7. who was attended with many others, and they carried great Treasures along with 'em, and Offerings to the Temple, ch. 8. When they were come to Jerusalem the Princes inform Ezra of great abuses both among Priests and People, by marrying heathen, idolatrous Wives, contrary to the Law, which Ezra bewails in Prayer unto God, ch. 9. and reforms, ch. 10.

CHAP. I.

1 Nehemiah understanding by Hanani the misery of Jerusalem, mourneth, fasteth and prayeth. 5 His prayer.

3550. THe words of Nehemiah the son of Hachaliah. And it came to pass in the month Chisleu, in the twentieth year, as I was in Shushan the palace,

2 That Hanani, one of my brethren, came, he and certain men of Judah, and I asked them concerning the Jews that had [1] escaped, which were [2] left of the captivity, and concerning Jerusalem.

[1] Were not carried Captives, when others were. ¶ [2] Remain'd in the Land.

3 And they said unto me, The remnant that are left of the captivity there in the province, are in great affliction and reproach: the wall of Jerusalem also is [3] broken down, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire.

[3] 2 Kings 25.10. Not yet repair'd, but still continuing in its ruins and rubbish.

4 ¶ And it came to pass when I heard these words, that I [4] sat down and wept, and mourned certain days, and fasted, and prayed before the God of heaven,

6 Let thine [7] ear now be attentive, and thine [7] eyes open, that thou mayest hear the prayer of thy servant, which I pray before thee now, [8] day and night, for the children of Israel thy servants, and confess the sins of the children of Israel, which we have sinned [9] against thee: both I, and my fathers house have sinned.

Artaxerxes understanding the cause of Nehemiah's sadness, sendeth him with letters and commission to Jerusalem.

ANd it came to pass in the month Nisan, in the twentieth year of * Artaxerxes the king, that wine was before him: and I took up the wine, and gave it unto the king. Now I had not been beforetime sad in his presence. 3550. * Ezra 7.1.

7 Moreover, I said unto the king, If it please the king, let letters be given me to the governours beyond the river, that they may [10] convey me over till I come into Judah;

[10] Safely conduct me through their several Territories.

8 And a letter unto Asaph the keeper of the kings forest, that he may give me timber to make beams for the gates of the [11] palace which appertained to the house, and for the wall of the city, and for the house that I shall enter into. 9 ¶ Then I came to the governours beyond the river, and gave them the kings letters. (Now the king had sent captains of the army, and horsemen with me)

10 When Sanballat the Horonite, and Tobiah [13] the servant the Ammonite, heard of it, it [14] grieved them exceedingly that there was come a man to [15] seek the welfare of the children of Israel.

12 ¶ And I arose in the night, I and some few men with me, neither told I any man what my God had put in my heart to do at Jerusalem: neither was there any beast with me, save the beast that I rode upon.

* 2 Chr. 26.9. Chap. 3.13. 13 And I went out by night, by * the gate of the valley, even before the dragon-well, and to the dung-port, and viewed the walls of Jerusalem, which were broken down, and the gates thereof were consumed with fire.

15 Then went I up in the night by the brook, and viewed the wall, and turned back, and entred by the gate of the valley, and so returned.

16 And the rulers knew not whither I went, nor what I did, neither had I as yet told it to the Jews, nor to the priests, nor to the nobles, nor to the rulers, nor to the rest that [17] did the work.

[17] Whom he intended to imploy in the following work.

17 ¶ Then said I unto them, Ye see the distress that we are in, how Jerusalem lieth waste, and the gates thereof are burnt with fire: come and let us build up the wall of Jerusalem, that we be no more a [18] reproach.

10 And Judah [13] said, The strength of the bearers of burdens is decayed, and there is much rubbish, so that we are [14] not able to build the wall.

[13] They began to murmur and complain that there was so much rubbish they should never be able to clear it; which was enough to discourage 'em all; as *Num.*32.9. ¶ [14] Num. 13.31.

11 And our Adversaries said, They shall not know, neither see, till we come in the midst among them, and slay them, and cause the work to cease.

14 And I looked, and roſe up, and ſaid unto the nobles, and to the rulers, and to the reſt of the people, [17] Be not ye afraid of them: [18] remember the LORD which is [19] great and terrible, and fight for your [20] brethren, your ſons and your daughters, your wives and your houſes.

The ARGUMENT.

THis Book is thought to be written by Mordecai, who bore a principal part in the History thereof. It contains an illustrious instance of God's singular care and watchfulness over his Church in her greatest straits and difficulties, and how he disposes of all Affairs and Events so as may most conduce to his own Glory, and the welfare of his Church and People. The advancement of Esther first, and Mordecai afterwards, with the several passages leading thereto, and variety of contingent circumstances attending thereon, and all in order to the defeating of Haman's cursed Design of extirpating the whole Nation of the Jews (and consequently, of the Church of God) is very wonderful and affecting to consider; and shews us how God can snare the Wicked in the work of his own hands, and tumble them into the Pit that they have digged for others, Psal. 7. 14--16. and 9. 15, 16.

CHAP. I.

1 Ahasuerus maketh royal feasts. 10 Vashti sent for, refuseth to come.

NOw it came to pass in the days of Ahasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus which reigned from India even unto Ethiopia, over an [1] hundred and seven and twenty provinces)

3 In the third year of his reign, he made a feast unto all his princes, and his [3] servants the [4] power of Persia and Media, the [5] nobles and princes of the provinces being before him.

6 Where were white, green, and ‖ blue hangings, fastened with cords of fine linen and purple, to silver rings and pillars of marble: the [7] beds were of gold, and silver, upon a pavement ‖ of red, and blue, and white, and black marble.

8 And the drinking was according to the law, none did compel: for so the king had appointed to all the officers of his house, that they should do according to every mans pleasure.

9 Also Vashti the queen made a feast for the women in the royal house which belonged to king Ahasuerus.

10 ¶ On the seventh day, when the heart of the king was [10] merry with wine, he commanded Mehuman, Biztha, * Harbona, Bigtha, and Abagtha, Zethar and Carcas, the seven ‖ chamberlains that served in the presence of Ahasuerus the king,

16 And Memucan answered before the king and the princes, Vashti the queen hath not done wrong to the king only, but also to all the princes, and to all the people that are in all the provinces of the king Ahasuerus.

17 For this deed of the queen shall come abroad unto all women, so that they shall despise their husbands in their eyes, when it shall be reported, The king Ahasuerus commanded Vashti the queen to be brought in before him, but she came not.

18 Likewise shall the ladies of Persia and Media say this day unto all the kings princes, which have heard of the deed of the queen. Thus shall

20 And when the kings decree which he shall make, shall be published throughout all his empire, (for it is great) all the wives shall give to their husbands [24] honour, both to great and small.

21 And the saying † pleased the king and the princes, and the king did according to the word of Memucan:

22 For he sent letters into all the kings provinces, * into every province according to the writing thereof, and to every people after their language, that every man should [25] bear rule in his own house, and that † it should be published according to the language † of every people.

CHAP. II.

1 Out of the choice of virgins, a queen is to be chosen.
17 Esther is elected.

AFter these things, when the wrath of king Ahasuerus was appeased, he [1] remembred Vashti, and what she had done, and what was decreed against her.

[1] Viz. With grief and shame, that in his wine and rage he had so severely punish'd, and irrevocably rejected so beautiful and desirable a person, and that upon so small a provocation.

2 Then said the kings servants, that ministred unto him, Let there be fair young virgins sought for the king.

3 And let the king appoint officers in all the provinces of his kingdom, that they may gather together all the fair young virgins unto Shushan the palace, to the house of the women, † unto the custody of ‖ Hege the kings chamberlain, keeper of the women, and let their things for [2] purification be given them:

4 And let the maiden which pleaseth the king be [3] queen in stead of Vashti. And the thing pleased the king, and he did so.

5 ¶ Now in Shushan the palace, there was a certain Jew, whose name was Mordecai, the son of Jair, the son of Shimei, the son of Kish, a Benjamite:

6 Who had been carried away from Jerusalem, with the captivity which had been carried away with ‖ [4] Jeconiah king of Judah, whom Nebuchadnezzar the king of Babylon had carried away.

[5] Her name being chang'd by the King, after he had married her, as was usual, *Dan.*1.7.

8 ¶ So it came to pass, when the kings commandment and his decree was heard, and when many maidens were gathered together unto Shushan the palace, to the custody of Hegai, that Esther was brought also unto the kings house, to the custody of Hegai, keeper of the women.

9 And the maiden [6] pleased him, and she obtained [7] kindness of him, and he speedily gave her her things for purification, with † such things as belonged to her, and seven maidens, which were meet to be given her, out of the kings house, and he † preferred her and her maids unto the best place of the house of the women.

11 And Mordecai walked every day before the court of the womens house, to know † how Esther did, and what should become of her.

† Heb. the peace of Esther.

12 ¶ Now when every maids turn was come, to go in to king Ahasuerus, after that she had been twelve months, according to the manner of the women, (for so were the days of their purifications accomplished, to wit, six months with oyl of myrrhe, and six months with sweet odours, and with other things for the purifying of the women)

13 Then thus came every maiden unto the king; whatsoever she desired was given her, to go with her out of the house of the women, unto the kings house.

14 In the evening she went, and on the morrow she returned into the second house of the women, to the custody of Shaashgaz, the kings chamberlain, which kept the concubines: she came in unto the king no more, except the king delighted in her, and that she were called by name.

15 ¶ Now when the turn of Esther, * the daughter of Abihail, the uncle of Mordecai (who had taken her for his daughter) was come to go in unto the king, she [9] required nothing, but what Hegai the kings chamberlain, the keeper of the women appointed: and Esther obtained favour in the sight of all them that looked upon her.

11 All the kings servants, and the people of the kings provinces do know, that whosoever, whether man or woman, shall come unto the king into the inner court, who is not called, * there is one law of his to put him to death, except such * to whom the king shall hold out the golden sceptre, that he may [8] live: but I have not been called to come in unto the king, these thirty days.

12 And they told to Mordecai Esthers words.

13 Then Mordecai commanded to answer Esther, Think not with thy self that thou shalt escape in the kings house more then all the Jews.

14 For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there † enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews [9] from another place, but thou and thy fathers house shall be [10] destroyed: and who knoweth, whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?

15 ¶ Then Esther bade them return Mordecai this answer,

16 Go, gather together all the Jews that are † present in Shushan, and [11] fast ye for me, and neither [12] eat nor drink * three days, [12] night or day: [13] I also and my maidens will fast likewise, and so will I go in unto the king, which is not according to the law; and [14] if I perish, I perish.

Esther adventuring on the kings favour, obtaineth the grace of the golden sceptre, and inviteth the king and Haman to a Banquet.

3495. NOw it came to pass * on the third day, that Esther put on her [1] royal apparel, and stood in * the inner court of the kings house, over against the kings house: and the king sat upon his royal throne in the royal house, over against the gate of the house.

2 And it was so when the king saw Esther the queen standing in the court, that she * [2] obtained favour in his sight: and * the king held out to Esther the golden sceptre that was in his hand: so Hester drew near, and touched the top of the sceptre.

3 Then said the king unto her, [3] What wilt thou, queen Esther? and what is thy request? it shall be even given thee, [4] to the half of the kingdom,

4 And Esther [5] answered, If it seem good unto the king, let the king and Haman come this day unto the banquet that I have prepared for him.

5 Then the king said, Cause Haman to make haste, that he may do as Esther hath said. So the king and Haman came to the banquet that Esther had prepared.

6 ¶ * And the king said unto Esther at the banquet of wine, * What is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: and what is thy request? even to the half of the kingdom it shall be performed.

JOB.

The ARGUMENT.

THis Book is divided by the Spirit of God (James 5. 11.) into the Patience of Job, and the End of the Lord, or iſſue that God gave thereto; both which were very remarkable, and render it a kind of divine Tragi-comedy, where many griefs and miſeries determine and iſſue ſweetly in greater joy and mercy. His Patience relates to his Sufferings, which were as liable to exception as any we read of, and cloath'd with as many aggravating circumſtances; he being wounded deeper by what was left (his Wife) than by what was loſt, and his Comforters proving more cruel than his Plunderers; as ſeeking to rob him of, or at leaſt perſwade him out of his Innocency, and the teſtimony of a good Conſcience, (the beſt brazen-wall, and armour of ſteel in ſuch caſes:) ſo that, as never any was under a warmer Sun of outward Proſperity, ſo neither was ever any in a hotter fire of outward Affliction than Job, his Furnace being heated ſeven times hotter than uſual.

The bulk of the Book is taken up with a Diſpute between him and his three Friends, manag'd with much eagerneſs and vehemency on both ſides.

His Friends, obſerving ſome impatient Expreſſions, and conſidering his ſevere Afflictions, charge him with Hypocriſy; and maintain, That God puniſhes, or afflicts only ſuch as are wicked: but yet, tho their Opinion in ſome things was unſound, and their Application as to Job's caſe, ungrounded, yet their expreſſions are orthodox, and partly true, tho' not univerſally true: They taught truth in all they ſpeak, but not the whole truth. As for example, That God afflicts for ſin, and ſeverely puniſhes wicked men in this life, is true frequently, but not univerſally: for ſome Afflictions are meerly for Trial (as Job's was) and ſome wicked men proſper all their days: Hence it comes to paſs, that there's no one ſentence conſider'd ſingly by it ſelf, that is contrary to other Scripture.

The Sum and Subſtance of all their Diſcourſes may be reduc'd to this one Syllogiſm, He that is afflicted, and greatly afflicted, and continues long under his affliction, is certainly either a great open Sinner, or a notorious Hypocrite. But ſo it is with thee, Job: therefore thou art ſuch a one.

Job denies the major: and tho' he knew himſelf to be a Sinner, yet he ſtifly denies that he was an Hypocrite.

Chap. 1.

pocrite. He readily grants that God was righteous in all his dealings with him: but he flatly denies that these dealings of God with him would prove him unrighteous. He disclaims his own righteousness in point of Justification, yet he justifies himself in point of Uprightness and Sincerity. Particularly

Eliphaz's Opinion seems to be this, That all the outward evils that befal man, are the fruit of his own sin, and of God's Justice. Thus he speaks expresly ch.4.8. and applies it to Job,ch.22.5,6.

Bildad speaks next, whose Opinion is not so rigid; he grants that Afflictions may befal a righteous person: but then they are of no long continuance. To this purpose he speaks ch.8.5,6,20,21.

Zophar the third Opponent differs from the two former, and holds, That the reason of all those afflictions which befal the children of men, is to be resolv'd into the absolute will and pleasure of God which is unsearchable. Thus he delivers his mind ch. 11.7,8,12. yet condemns Job as well as the other, ch.20.29.

Job on the contrary maintains, That God dispenses outward Prosperity and Adversity indifferently to good and bad; and therefore no certain judgment can be formed of a man's spiritual estate upon the view of his temporal. This he lays down positively ch.9.22,23.

This Dispute reaches from ch. 2. to the end of ch. 31.

Then comes Elihu as an Umpire and Moderator between 'em; and he condemns both; Job, for his too passionate complaints of God's severity, which was an interpretative justifying himself rather than God, ch.32.2. and 34.35. and 35.16. His three Friends, because they had condemned Job, and yet had not answered his Allegations, ch.32.3.

In his Discourse he distinguishes of persons that are under the afflicting hand of God: some are truly righteous and keep close to God in ways of piety; these receive many Blessings from the bountiful hand of God, ch.36.7. Others, tho' righteous, yet have been guilty of foul miscarriages: these being humbled by their afflictions, are usually restor'd to a prosperous state in this life, ch.36.9--11. But some being altogether wicked and incorrigible, abide under wrath for ever, ch. 36.13,14.

Then he Discourses concerning the wonderful works of God in nature; the Rain, Thunder, Snow, Winds, &c. ch.36. and 37. whence he infers, That if man can't give a satisfying account of those works, much less is he able to fathom the depth of God's purposes in all the works of his Providence, ch.37.23,24.

Then in the last place God himself enters the Stage, and takes up the same Argument which Elihu had so much insisted on before, concerning his mighty and admirable works of Creation and Providence, thereby to convince him how ignorant and weak he was in himself, how altogether unable to contend with God, and therefore how rash he had been in not submitting more quietly to him: and withal shews him, as his infinite Power and Wisdom, so his infinite Goodness and tender Compassions in providing for all sorts of living Creatures, and therefore would much more be watchful over and respectful to Man.

Hereupon Job was convinc'd of his miscarriage, and condemns and humbles himself; and then God justifies him (comparatively, to his two Friends) and sets the Crown of Victory upon his Head, repairs all his losses, and so brought him off that tragical Stage with far greater honour than he entred upon it. And this was The End of the Lord, both in regard of his Losses, and of his Accusations: whence we should be encouraged to suffer patiently when visited, considering that the Lord is very pitiful and of tender mercies, James 5.11. and That tho' many and grievous are the Afflictions of the righteous, yet the Lord delivers 'em out of all, *Psal.*34.19.

The time wherein these things were transacted most probably was before Moses, (for which Mr. Pool gives several Reasons, in his Argument before this Book.) But who was the Relater and Penman thereof is wholly uncertain; whether Job himself, as some think: or Elihu (as some gather from ch. 32.15, 16.) or Moses, as others conjecture. Neither is it needful for us to know, since God thought fit to conceal it.

1 Eliphaz reproveth Job for want of religion. 7 He teacheth Gods judgments to be, not for the righteous, but for the wicked. 12 His fearful vision to humble the excellencies of creatures before God.

2400. THen Eliphaz the Temanite [1] answered and said,

[1] His scope is to maintain, that God proportions Corrections according to mens sins; and therefore Job being so grievously punish'd, must needs be a grievous Sinner.

2 If we essay † to commune with thee, [2] wilt thou be grieved? but who can † with-hold himself from speaking?

† Heb. a word. † Heb. refrain from words?

6 [8] Is not this thy [9] fear, thy [10] confidence, thy [11] hope, and the [12] uprightness of thy ways?

[13] Give one instance hereof now if thou canst. ¶ [14] Was so totally ruin'd and miserably afflicted as thou art. ¶ [15] Not guilty of some heinous crime or other. ¶ [16] Who live justly.

[45] q.d. When troubles come abroad in the world, God is ſo far from exempting or upholding good men, that he takes pleaſure to ſee 'em fall among the reſt. This is one of the moſt irreverent paſſages of any that dropp'd from him.

24 [46] The earth is given into the hand of the wicked: [47] he covereth the faces of the judges thereof; [48] if not, where, and who is he?

[46] q. d. And as he deſtroys the righteous, (v. 23.) ſo he proſpers the wicked. ¶ [47] He blinds 'em that they can't diſcern right from wrong. ¶ [48] If it been't ſo as I ſay, where is any one elſe that could do ſo? certainly none elſe could manage the affairs of the World after this manner, but he.

25 [49] Now my days are ſwifter then a poſt: they flee away, they ſee no good.

[49] q.d. I'll give you an inſtance of God's deſtroying the perfect, (v. 22.) in my ſelf, whom theſe troubles will ſoon make an end of.

28 [53] I am afraid of all my ſorrows, [54] I know that thou wilt not [55] hold me innocent.

[53] q. d. Yet I can't thruſt 'em out of my mind, but they'l be preſſing in upon me, and the very thoughts thereof are terrible to me. ¶ [54] I have found it too by experience, and have no reaſon to think it will be otherwiſe. ¶ [55] Free me from trouble.

29 [56] If I be wicked, why then [56] labour I in vain?

[56] If I muſt be condemned as a wicked man, ſay I what I can for my ſelf, then it's in vain for me to endeavour to clear my ſelf, and maintain my own innocency.

[57] Jer. 2.22. 30 * If I [58] waſh my ſelf with ſnow-water, and make my [59] hands never ſo clean;

[58] Clear my ſelf from all imputations, and fully prove my innocence. ¶ [59] *Sam.*4.8. *Pſal.*18.20.

† Heb. I am not ſo with my ſelf. 35 [66] Then would I ſpeak, and not fear him; but † [67] it is not ſo with me.

[66] This plainly implies, that he thought if he had liberty to ſpeak freely, he could fully clear himſelf, and prove that God dealt too hardly with him. ¶ [67] For I am daunted, and kept under with ſorrows and fears.

* Chap. 34. 5.

† Heb. made my soul bitter. Ruth 1. 20. 2 Kings 4. 27.

2 [2] As God liveth, * who hath [3] taken away my judgment, and the Almighty, who hath † vexed my soul;

[2] 1 Sam. 25. 34. See there. ¶ [3] Isa. 40. 27. Not given me opportunity to clear my self.

‖ That is, the breath which God gave him.

3 All the while my breath is in me, and ‖ the spirit of God is in my nostrils;

[4] The breath which God breathed into me.

4 My lips shall not speak [5] wickedness, nor my tongue utter [5] deceit.

[5] Zeph. 3. 13. Any untruth to vindicate my self where I am guilty, or to condemn my self where I am innocent.

* Chap. 2. 9.

5 God forbid that I should justifie * [6] you: till I die * I will not [7] remove my integrity from me.

[6] Your opinion and censure of me. ¶ [7] 2 Cor. 1. 12. Deny that I am sincere, and confess my self an hypocrite.

† Heb from my days.

6 [8] My righteousness I hold fast, and will not let it go: [9] my heart shall not reproch me † so long as I live.

[8] Ch. 2. 3. I'll maintain and defend my sincerity, that I am a righteous person. ¶ [9] Acts 24. 16. My Conscience shall not fly in my face for betraying my own innocency.

7 [10] Let mine enemy be as the wicked, and he that riseth up against me, as the unrighteous.

[10] 1 Sam. 25. 26. 2 Sam. 18. 32. Dan. 4. 19. q. d. I can wish no greater mischief to my worst enemy, than to be wicked; (and therefore I don't approve of it, whatever you think of me.)

8 [11] For what is the hope of the hypocrite, though he hath [12] gained, when God [13] taketh away his soul?

[11] q. d. And hereby it appears that I am no hypocrite, because I have hope in death; which seldom any hypocrite has, ch. 13. 15. &c. ¶ [12] Grown never so rich, and prosper'd never so much. ¶ [13] Matth. 16. 26. Luke 12. 20.

10 [15] Will he delight himself in the Almighty? will he [16] always call upon God?

[15] Psal 37. 4. See there. Can he find comfort in God when the world affords none? (which I now do.) ¶ [16] In time of prosperity, as well as adversity, Psal. 78. 34. There must first be a delight in God, before there will be any continuance in duty.

‖ Or, being in the hand, &c.

11 [17] I will teach you ‖ by the hand of God: [18] that which is with the Almighty, will I not conceal.

[17] I'll inform you by God's Assistance and Inspiration, (as Isa. 8. 11.) what are the usual dispensations of his Providence both towards the righteous, and the wicked. ¶ [18] What course he uses to take, either for the prospering or punishing both of good and bad.

Chap. 28.

12 Behold, [19] all ye your selves have seen it, [20] why then are ye thus altogether vain?

[19] You can't but have observ'd in your own experience, that God dispenses these outward things indifferently. ¶ [20] Why do you so falsly conclude, against your own knowledge and experience, that God always punishes the wicked and prospers the godly; and thereupon condemn me for an Hypocrite?

13 [21] This is the portion of a wicked man [22] with God, and the heritage of oppressours, which they shall receive of the Almighty.

[21] Ch. 20. 29. See there. Viz. To be rejected by God at last (v. 8, 9.) tho' they may prosper all their life long. ¶ [22] Which he shall have from God.

14 If his children be multiplyed, it is [23] for the sword: and his offspring shall [24] not be satisfied with bread.

[23] Hos. 9. 13. Esth. 9. 10. Deut. 28. 41. ¶ [24] Be starv'd for want of food.

15 Those that [25] remain of him shall be buried in death: and his widows shall [26] not weep.

[25] Having scap'd the sword and famine, (v. 14.) yet shall be hurried to the grave, and buried obscurely without any pomp or solemnity. ¶ [26] Psal. 78. 64. Jer. 22. 18.

[27] Choice of Apparel. [28] Prov. 31. 22. & 28. 8. Eccl. 2. 26.

16 Though he heap up silver as the dust, and prepare [27] raiments as the clay;

17 He may prepare it, but the [28] just shall put it on, and the innocent shall divide the silver.

18 He buildeth his house [29] as a moth, and [30] as a booth that the keeper maketh.

[29] Ch. 8. 14. Psal. 58. 7. &c. Which shall suddenly be destroy'd. ¶ [30] Isa. 1. 8. Lam. 2. 6. Like a Shepherd's Cabbin, which is soon unmade and remov'd.

19 The rich man shall [31] lie down, but he shall [32] not be gathered: [33] he openeth his eyes, and he is not.

[31] Dye as others do. ¶ [32] Numb. 20. 26. 2 Kings 22. 20. Jer. 8. 2. Not have the honour of a Burial. ¶ [33] In the twinkling of an eye he is taken away, Psal. 58. 9.

* Chap. 18.

20 * Terrours take hold on him [34] as waters, [35] a tempest stealeth him away [36] in the night.

[37] Some violent Infliction. Heb. 13. 15.

21 [37] The east-wind carrieth him away, and he departeth: and as a storm hurleth him out of his place.

22 For God shall [38] cast upon him, and not spare: † he would [39] fain flee out of his hand.

[38] Viz. His darts and plagues one after another. ¶ [39] Exod. 14. 25. Judg. 4. 17. Amos 2. 14.

CHAP. XXVIII.

1 There is a knowledge of natural things. 12 But wisdom is an excellent gift of God.

2400.

‖ Or, a mine.

[1] SUrely, there is ‖ a vein for the silver, and a place for gold where they fine it.

[1] q. d. Man's wit can find a way to bring hidden things out of the earth, and then to make 'em fit for use, (Exod. 36. 1.) but can't find out the reason of God's providential dispensations.

‖ Or, dust.

2 Iron is taken out of the ‖ earth, and brass is molten out of the stone.

3 [2] He setteth an end to darkness, and searcheth out [3] all perfection: [4] the stones of darkness and [4] the shadow of death.

[2] He suffers these metals to continue no longer in darkness, but brings 'em out to the light. ¶ [3] All those rich and excellent metals that lye hid in the bowels of the earth. ¶ [4] He searches out also precious stones which lye low in the earth, where persons are many times choak'd with damps, and expos'd to manifold dangers of death.

4 [5] The

Chap. 28.

4 [5] The flood breaketh out [6] from the inhabitant; even the waters [7] forgotten of the foot: they are [8] dried up, they are [8] gone away from men.

[5] Waters flow in upon 'em, as they dig in the Mines. ¶ [6] Or, So that there is no abiding; i. e. so that the workmen are forc'd to leave their work. ¶ [7] Which never any one did pass over, (as they do rivers above ground.) ¶ [8] By the art and labour of the Miners.

5 [9] As for the earth, out of it cometh bread: and [10] under it is turned up as it were fire.

[9] q.d. Man by his skill and pains makes the surface of the earth fruitful for the production of Corn, and other necessaries to sustain his life, Isa. 28. 28. ¶ [10] And then underneath they find coles and other fuel, Ezek 28.-14.

6 [11] The stones of it are the place of [12] sapphires: and it hath ‖ dust of gold.

‖ Or, gold ore.

[11] In stony pits, or places under ground, they find Sapphires and other precious Stones. ¶ [12] v. 16. Exod. 24. 10. and 28.18. *Cant.*5. 14.

7 [13] There is a path which no fowl knoweth, and which the vultures eye hath not seen.

[13] q. d. Art and skil lead men to those hidden places under ground, which the most quick sighted bird or beast never could discover, or come at.

8 The lions whelps have not troden it, nor the fierce lion passed by it.

9 [14] He putteth forth his hand upon the ‖ rock; he overturneth the mountains by the roots.

‖ Or, flint.

[14] q.d. The Miner is fain to cut his way through rocks, and to dig to the bottom of mountains to come at those precious metals.

10 [15] He cutteth out rivers among the rocks, and [16] his eye seeth every precious thing.

[15] He makes soughts, or passages through the rocks for those waters that break in upon the Miners, *v.*4. ¶ [16] Prov. 24.4. He discovers all rare Minerals, and precious Metals and Stones.

11 He [17] bindeth the floods from † overflowing, and the thing that is hid, bringeth he forth to light.

† Heb. weeping.

[17] Stops their course from breaking into his Mines, and turns 'em another way.

12 * [18] But where shall [19] wisdom be found? and where is the place of [19] understanding?

* Eccl. 7.24.

[18] q. d. True; Man's wisdom has found out these hidden things forementiond; but yet there's one thing too hard for him. ¶ [19] v. 20. The knowledge of the true reason of God's various dealings with the children of men: this is far above man's reach, Rom. 11.33.

13 Man knoweth not the [20] price thereof; neither is it [21] found in the land of the living.

[20] Or, order; i. e. God has so dispos'd it, that no man knows the order and method of his proceedings. ¶ [21] *v.*21. No man on earth can attain to it.

14 * The depth saith, [22] It is not in me: and the sea saith, It is not with me.

* Verf. 22. [22] I can't resolve you herein.

15 † It * cannot be gotten for [23] gold, neither shall silver be weighed for the price thereof.

[23] Prov. 8.11. 19. & 16. 16.

16 It cannot be valued with the gold of Ophir, with the precious onyx, or the sapphire.

17 The gold and the crystal cannot equal it: and the exchange of it shall not be for ‖ jewels of fine gold.

† Heb. fine gold shall not be given for it.

18 No mention shall be made of ‖ coral, or of pearls: for the price of wisdom is above rubies

* Prov. 3.13, 14.

‖ Or, vessels.

19 The topaz of Ethiopia shall not equal it, neither shall it be valued with pure gold.

‖ Or, Ramoth.

20 * Whence then cometh wisdom? and where is the place of understanding?

* Verf. 12.

21 Seeing it is hid from the eyes of all living, and kept close from the fowls of the ‖ air.

‖ Or, heaven.

22 * [24] Destruction and death say, We have heard the fame thereof with our ears.

* Verf. 14.

[24] q. d. There are manifold discoveries of God's wise disposal of things, even in the grave, and among the damned; which yet they can't give a reason of.

23 [25] God understandeth the way thereof, and he knoweth the place thereof.

[25] God only perfectly knows the reasons of his various proceedings with men; and therefore you ought not to take upon you to interpret so peremptorily the meaning of his Providences, and to condemn me for a wicked man thereupon: since God may afflict me for extraordinary reasons known only to himself.

Chap. 29.

24 For [26] he looketh to the ends of the earth, and seeth under the whole heaven.

[26] Prov. 15.3. *Zech.*4.-10. He orders and disposes all things at his pleasure.

25 * [27] To make the weight for the winds, and he weigheth the waters by measure.

* Psal. 135.7

[27] He disposes of the winds, both for degree, time, place, and the like, as he pleases, *ch.*37.12,13.

26 When he made a decree for the [28] rain, and a [29] way for the lightning [30] of the thunder:

[28] Amos 4.7. *Jer.*5.24. When, where, and how it should fall. ¶ [29] A certain course appointed by God, when, where, how long, and how terribly it should lighten. ¶ [30] Which breaking out of the Clouds with violence, causes Thunder

27 Then did he [31] see it, and ‖ declare it, he prepared it, yea, and searched it out.

‖ Or, number.

[31] Understands the reasons of all these things, (which you cant' do; much less of his dealings with men.)

28 [32] And unto man [33] he said, [34] Behold, [35] the fear of the Lord, [36] that is wisdom, and to [37] depart from evil is understanding.

[32] Or, But; q. d. Tho' the knowledge of the Mysteries of Providence, and the Reasons of his Dispensations in the World he has reserved to himself, yet there's another sort of knowledge which is attainable. ¶ [33] He has many ways discover'd this to be his pleasure, and made it known unto men as their Duty, Concern, and Interest to seek after. ¶ [34] When God preach'd this Doctrin, he did, as it were, sound a Trumpet before it, and called Mankind to see as well as to hear this Truth. ¶ [35] Psal. 111.10. Prov. 1.7. and 9.10. Eccl. 12.13. To get the heart possest with a principle of true Piety, whereby a man may be enabled to worship and serve God aright, and perform all other Duties incumbent on him. ¶ [36] *Deut.*4.6. That is the chief point of wisdom that God requires of man, and that whereby alone he can attain unto eternal happiness, and wherewithal he must be content, and not to dive into God's secrets, *Deut.*29.29. ¶ [37] Psal. 34.14. and 37.27. *Isa.*1.16. 3 *John.*11.

16 And now *[30] my soul is poured out [31] upon me; the days of affliction have taken hold upon me.

* Psal. 42. 4.

[30] My courage and resolution is wasted and spent, and all the powers of my Soul are decayed. ¶ [31] Or, within me.

17 [32] My bones are pierced in me in the night-season: and my sinews take no rest.

[32] My bodily pains are so great, that they affect and afflict my very bones and sinews.

18 [33] By the great force of my disease, is my garment changed: [34] it bindeth me about as the collar of my coat.

[33] My Disease is so extreme violent, that it breaks forth all over me in such store of filthy corrupt matter, that it infects and discolours my very garments. ¶ [34] It cleaves fast to me, being glewed by the corrupt matter issuing from my sores.

19 He hath cast me into the [35] mire, and I am become [36] like dust and ashes.

[35] Psal. 40. 2. viz. Of my sores. ¶ [36] Foul with the filth of my sores.

20 I cry unto thee, and thou dost not hear me: [37] I stand up, and thou [38] regardest me not.

[37] I offer my self to thy view as an object of compassion, and pray to thee, Jer. 15. 1. ¶ [38] Matth. 15. 23.

† Heb. turned to be cruel. [39] Psal. 77. 8–10. Jer. 30. 14. † Heb. the strength of thy hand.

21 Thou art † become [39] cruel to me: with † thy strong hand thou opposest thy self against me.

‖ Or, wisdom.

22 Thou [40] liftest me up to the wind; thou causest me [41] to ride upon it, and [42] dissolvest my ‖ substance.

[40] Exposest me to storms of trouble. ¶ [41] To be carried about thereby. ¶ [42] Consum'st my Body by the violence of my troubles.

* Heb. 9. 27.

23 For [43] I know that thou wilt bring me to death, and to the [44] house * appointed for all living.

[43] I see and perceive by thy dealing with me. ¶ [44] Eccl. 12. 5.

† Heb. heap.

24 [45] Howbeit he will not stretch out his hand to the † grave, [46] though they cry in his destruction.

[45] Or surely God will not rescue me, such an one as I am, who am already as it were in the grave. ¶ [46] Tho' his Friends are never so earnest for his recovery, when they see that God is about to destroy him.

† Heb. hard of of day.

25 Did not I [47] weep for him that was † in trouble? was not my soul grieved for the poor?

[47] Psal. 35. 13, 14. Rom. 12. 15. (And therefore I don't suffer for my hard-heartedness.)

26 When I [48] looked for good, then evil came unto me: and when I waited for [49] light, there came darkness.

[48] Jer. 8. 15. Expected the continuance of my comfort, it fell out otherwise with me, so that now there is a great change. ¶ [49] Comfort.

27 My bowels [50] boyled and rested not: the days of affliction [51] prevented me.

[50] Lam. 1. 26. Wrought, and grew hot through the violence of my distempers and troubles. ¶ [51] Came suddenly and unexpectedly upon me.

28 I [52] went mourning without the sun: I stood up, and I cried [53] in the congregation.

[52] Psal. 38. 6. and 42. 9. and 43. 2. I spend my days in mourning without any comfort, and am so oppress'd with sadness, that I neither care nor desire to see the light of the Sun. ¶ [53] Among that company that come about me to behold me.

‖ Or, ostriches.

29 I am [54] a brother to dragons, and a companion to ‖ owls.

[54] Psal. 102. 6. Like them; sitting alone, and howling as they do.

30 My skin [55] is black upon me, and my bones are [56] burnt with heat.

[55] Psal. 119. 83. Lam. 4. 8. and 5. 10. ¶ [56] Consumed as it were with inward torments of Soul.

31 [57] My harp also is turned to mourning, and my organ into the voice of them that weep.

[57] Instead of those things which formerly I us'd for my delight, I have nothing but matter of sorrow.

1 Job maketh a solemn protestation of his integrity in several duties.

1 I [1] made a covenant with mine [2] eyes; why then should I [3] think upon a maid? 2400.

CHAP. XXXII.

1 Elihu is angry with Job and his three friends.
11 He reproveth them for not satisfying of him.
16 His zeal to speak.

2400.

† Heb. from answering.

SO these three men ceased † to answer Job, because [1] he was righteous in his own eyes.

[1] They found he was resolutely bent to justifie himself, say what they could.

†Heb. his soul

2 Then was [2] kindled the wrath of Elihu the son of Barachel the Buzite, of the kindred of Ram: against Job was his wrath kindled, because he [3] justified † himself rather then God.

[2] *Gal.*4.18. ¶ [3] *ch.*34.5,6. and 35.2. See on *ch.*9.20. Took more care to maintain, and insisted more upon the vindication of his own innocency, than God's Justice; yea, and not without reflections upon God as dealing too severely with him.

3 Also against his three friends was his wrath kindled, because they had found [4] no answer, and yet had condemned [5] Job.

[4] To what Job alledged to prove his innocency. ¶ [5] As a wicked man and an hypocrite.

†Heb. expected Job in words.

4 Now Elihu had † waited till Job had spoken, because they were † elder then he.

† Heb. elder for days.

5 When Elihu saw that there was no answer in the mouth of these three men, then his wrath was kindled.

† Heb. full of days. † Heb. fearful

Chap. 32.

8 [9] But there is [10] a ſpirit in man: and the [11] inſpiration of the Almighty giveth them underſtanding.

[9] q. d. Though aged perſons have a great advantage to gain knowledge and experience, yet beſides Age, ſomething elſe is required for that end, viz. A Soul endued with a principle of reaſon, underſtanding and judgment, which ought to be improved and exerciſed, that we may learn our duty. ¶ [11] *ch.*35.11. and 38.36. *Prov.*2.6. *Eccl.*2. 26. Dan. 1.17. and 2.-21. *Jam.*1. 5. 9 [12] Great men are not always wiſe: neither do the aged [13] underſtand judgment.

[12] 1 *Cor.*1.26. Men of great years, and ſuch as have the advantage of Learning, Wealth, Authority, and the like. ¶ [13] Always know what is right and juſt; nor at any time, what are the reaſons of God's diſpenſations.

10 [14] Therefore I ſaid, Hearken to me, I alſo will ſhew mine opinion.

[14] q.d. Becauſe you have no more to ſay, (v. 3.) and what you have ſaid has not been ſo convincing, (*v.*12.) as might be deſir'd.

11 Behold, I waited for your words; [15] I gave ear to your † reaſons, whilſt you [16] ſearched out † what to ſay.

† Heb. words.

[15] I conſider'd and weighed 'em well, whether they were ſatisfactory and convincing. ¶ [16] Studied what you might further alledge againſt him.

12 Yea, I [17] attended unto you: and behold, there was none of you that [18] convinced Job, or that anſwered his words:

[17] *Prov.*18.13. ¶ [18] Viz. That he was an ungodly man.

13 [19] Leſt you ſhould ſay, We have found out wiſdom: [20] God thruſteth him down, not man.

[19] *Jer.*9.23. q.d. This I ſay, leſt you ſhould flatter your ſelves, as if you had ſaid all that can, or need to be ſaid in the caſe. ¶ [20] Theſe calamities that have befallen him are God's immediate work; and therefore he is an hypocrite. But ſaith Elihu, Theſe arguments don't ſatisfie me, and therefore bear with me if I ſeek for better.

14 Now [21] he hath not ‖ directed his words againſt me: neither will I anſwer him with [22] your ſpeeches.

‖ Or, ordred.

[9] *Eccl.*9.-13. But it can't hurt God; (and therefore God does not punish thee for this reason, but because thou dost not obey his commands.)

Chap. 36.

9 [10] By reason of the multitude of oppressions, they make the oppressed to [11] cry: they cry out by reason of the [12] arm of the mighty.

[10] q. d. That indeed is true which thou hast spoken, (ch. 24.12.) that God suffers many men to be unjustly oppress't, and rights 'em not assoon as they complain, but the fault is in themselves, and not in God. ¶ [11] Luke 18.7. ¶ [12] Power to oppress.

[21] Ungodly men, void of all true Piety. ¶ [22] Their oppression, (so as to deliver 'em.)

16 [28] Therefore doth Job open his mouth in vain: he multiplieth words [29] without knowledge.

[28] q. d. And hence it's manifest that he pours forth complaints without any success. ¶ [29] Thereby discovering his ignorance of God and himself.

This he speaks according to the tenor of God's Promises, especially in the Old Testament state of the Church, and according to the common course and method which he himself and other good men had observed. ¶ [16] Abounding in worldly comforts, and being enabled by God to rejoyce in 'em, (*Eccl.*3.13.) and delight themselves in God's love and favour in 'em.

Chap. 36.

20 [33] Desire not the night, when [34] people are cut off in their place.

[33] Don't rashly desire death, lest God take thee at thy word. ¶ [34] Even whole Nations and Bodies of People are destroy'd in the midst of all their comforts and enjoyments.

21 Take heed, [35] regard not iniquity: for [36] this hast thou chosen rather then [37] affliction.

[35] *Psal.*66.18. Give not way to any sin in general, nor particularly to rash, intemperate speeches concerning God's proceedings, (as thou hast done.) ¶ [36] Rash censuring of God's ways. ¶ [37] To bear thy afflictions patiently.

25 [43] Every man may see it, man may behold it afar off.

[43] q. d. There's scarce any so blind or blockish, but must needs own and acknowledge God's greatness and excellency therein.

5 God thundreth [8] marvellously with his voice; [9] great things doeth he, which we [10] cannot comprehend.

[8] With a wonderful and terrible noise, and so as to produce many wonderful effects. ¶ [9] ch. 5.9. Rev. 15. 3. ¶ [10] *ch.*36.26. *Psal.*77.19. Can give no account of many natural things; much less of his providential dispensations; (and therefore must not censure 'em.)

20 Shall it be told him [41] that I speak? if a man speak, surely he shall be [42] swallowed up.

[41] That I'll take thy cause in hand, and plead it against him. ¶ [42] Confounded with his Majesty and Power.

21 [43] And now men see not the bright light which is in the clouds: but the wind passeth and [44] cleanseth them.

[43] q. d. And now the Sky being overspread with Clouds, men can't see the Sun thorow them. ¶ [44] Drives them away, and makes a clear sky.

23 Touching the Almighty, we cannot [47] find him out: he is excellent in [48] power, and in [49] judgment, and in plenty of justice: he will not [50] afflict.

[47] *Ch.*11.7. 1 *Tim.*6.16. PSALMS.

The ARGUMENT.

THis Book of Psalms was written mostly by David: (for since it's certain that some of 'em that don't bear his Name were of his Composure, viz. Psalm 2. (as appears by Acts 4.45.) and Psal. 91. and 105. (as appears by 1 Chron. 16. 8. &c) we may probably presume the like of the rest that are not entitled to any other:) They were collected and digested in the same order in which we now have 'em, before Christ's time: (for we read of the second Psalm, Acts 13.33.) probably by the same divinely inspired person, (which some think was Ezra) that fixed the Canon of the Old Testament.

They are of several sorts, yea, indeed of all sorts: Psalms of Prayer, of Praise, of Complaint, of Instruction, of Direction, of Consolation, of Description, of Confession, of Petition, of Humiliation, and what not? So that whatsoever Condition a Christian can fall into, here he may find something suitable to his own case: for tho' many of 'em were penn'd upon particular occasions, yet the expressions usually are general, and so will fit any one in such circumstances: (Like a well-drawn Picture which seems to look upon every one in the room.)

They are interlarded and besprinkled, or rather bespangled with many Divine Soliloquies, Spiritual Raptures, Devout Meditations, Pious Ejaculations, Holy Self-reflections, Sweet Experiences, Humble Confessions, Earnest Petitions, Thankful Acknowledgments, Joyful Exultations, Heavenly Praises, and Religious Exercises of the Soul of all sorts, (called therefore the very Heart of the holy Scriptures, being so full of heavenly Affections:) All which shew that there's a peculiar Vein and strain of spiritual Matter in this Book, much differing from what is in other Books of holy Scripture: and that altho' all Scripture was written by holy men of God as they were moved, or inspired by the Holy Ghost, yet this of the Psalms was not only written by holy Men, but by holy Men in holy frames, (as one saith) who were not only moved by the Holy Spirit to write 'em, but were in the Spirit when they penn'd 'em: not so much acted by external Impulsion, as inward Affection, warmth of Zeal, and sensible Experience: for the Psalms, being to be a special part of the worship of God in all Ages of the Church, whereby, not only God speaks to us (as in other Scriptures) but we speak to him in Prayer and Praise, were therefore indited by another Spirit than other Scripture.

In all which respects they are to be read frequently, attentively, diligently by every Christian; and not only to be Read, but Sung; and that for this end, to express, as also to procure, promote and maintain a holy chearfulness of Spirit, (Jam. 5. 13.) which ought to be our constant, continual Frame, Phil. 4. 4. 1 Thess. 5. 16.

Some of 'em are of such exact Composure, (probably for memory's sake) that the several Verses, or half Verses begin with the several Letters of the Alphabet in order as they stand among the Hebrews, as Psal. 25. 34. 111, 112, 119, 145. (as also Prov. 31. from v. 10. to the end, Lam. 1. & 2. & 3. & 4.)

It is observable that as this Book begins with a Description of Blessed Persons, Psal. 1. and in the sequel shews wherein true Blessedness does consist, and the way how to attain it, viz. By becoming Members of Christs Kingdom, and submitting to him, Psal. 2. &c. so it concludes with that which shall be the work of the Blessed to all Eternity, viz. the Praises of God, Psal. 145, 147, 148, 149, 150.

Psal. 44.

4 * Thou art [7] my King, O God; [8] command deliverances for Jacob.

5 Through thee will we push down our enemies; through thy [9] name will we tread them under that rise up against us.

6 For * I will not trust in my bow; neither shall my sword save me.

7 But thou hast saved us from our enemies; and hast put them to shame that hated us.

8 In God we boast all the day long; and praise thy name for ever. Selah.

9 But thou hast [10] cast off, and put us to [11] shame; and goest not forth with our armies.

10 Thou makest us to turn back from the enemy; and they which hate us [12] spoil for themselves.

11 Thou hast given us † like [13] sheep appointed for meat; and hast scattered us among the heathen.

12 * Thou [14] sellest thy people † for [15] nought; and dost not [16] increase thy wealth by their price.

13 Thou makest us a [17] reproch to our neighbours, a scorn and a derision to them that are round about us.

14 * Thou makest us a [18] by-word among the heathen: * a [19] shaking of the head among the people.

15 [20] My confusion is continually before me, and the shame of my face hath covered me:

16 For the voice of him that reprocheth and blasphemeth; by reason of * the enemy and [21] avenger.

17 All this is come upon us; [22] yet have we not forgotten thee, neither have we [23] dealt falsly in thy covenant.

18 Our heart is not turned [24] back, neither have our ‖ steps declined from thy way:

19 Though thou hast sore broken us in * the [25] place of dragons, and covered us with the * [26] shadow of death.

20 If we have forgotten the [27] name of our God, or * [28] stretched out our hands to a strange god:

21 * Shall not God search this out? for [29] he knoweth the secrets of the heart.

22 [30] Yea, for thy sake are we killed all the day long; we are counted as sheep for the slaughter.

23 * [31] Awake, why sleepest thou, O Lord? [31] Arise, cast us not off for ever.

24 Wherefore hidest thou thy face? and forgettest our affliction, and our oppression?

25 For * [32] our soul is bowed down to the dust; [33] our belly cleaveth unto the earth.

26 Arise † for our help, and redeem us for thy mercies sake.

PSAL. XLIX.

1 An earnest perswasion to build the faith of the resurrection, not on worldly power, but on God. 16 Worldly prosperity is not to be admired.

¶ To the chief musician, A † psalm ‖ for the sons of Korah.

‖ Or, of.

† Wherein the Psalmist arms himself against the temptation arising from the adversity of the godly, and prosperity of the wicked. It's of the same tendency with Psal. 73.

HEar this, all ye people, give ear all ye inhabitants of the world:

2 Both low and high, rich and poor together.

3 My mouth shall speak of [1] wisdom: and the meditation of my heart shall be of [1] understanding.

[1] Psal. 45. 1. What has a great tendency to make persons truly wise and understanding.

4 [2] I will incline mine ear to a [3] parable: I will [4] open my dark saying upon the harp.

[2] Psal. 78. 2. Matth. 13. 35. I my self will hearken to what God's Spirit does suggest to me that I may deliver it to you, and will also my self attend to it. ¶ [3] See on Numb. 23. 7. ¶ [4] Publish this deep and profound matter which I have learnt.

5 Wherefore should I [5] fear in the days of evil, when the [6] iniquity of my heels shall [7] compass me about?

[5] Phil. 1. 28. Be dismayed and dejected, or distrustful of God's Providence in time of trouble and distress; particularly, when wicked men flourish, and good men are oppress'd. ¶ [6] The injurious dealings of my enemies, who maliciously observe my ways, and design to trip up my heels. ¶ [7] Hos. 7. 2.

6 They that [8] trust in their wealth, and [9] boast themselves in the multitude of their riches:

[8] Job 31. 24. Psal. 62. 10. Prov. 10. 15. Mark 10. 24. 1 Tim. 6. 17. ¶ [9] Rev. 18. 7.

7 None of them can by any means [10] redeem his [11] brother, nor give to God a [12] ransom for him:

[10] Viz. From death, v. 9, 10. ¶ [11] (And consequently, not himself neither.) ¶ [12] Matth. 16. 26.

8 (For * [13] the redemption of their soul is precious, and it [13] ceaseth for ever.)

* Job 36. 18, 19.

[13] The preservation of their life is difficult to compass, and is never to be procur'd.

9 That he should [14] still live for ever, and and not see corruption.

[14] Psal. 89. 48

10 For he [15] seeth that [16] wise men die, likewise the fool and the brutish person perish, and leave their wealth to others.

[15] Every one cannot but observe this. ¶ [16] Eccl. 2. 16.

¶ [1] A psalm ‖ of Asaph.

‖ Or, for Asaph. See 1 Chr. 15.17. & 25.2. 2 Chro. 29.30.

[1] The scope of this Psalm is to reprove the Jews for trusting to their external performances, and to instruct 'em in the nature of acceptable Worship, and so to prepare 'em for that Change that was to be made in the outward way of Worship under the Gospel.

THE mighty God, even the LORD hath spoken, and called the [2] earth from the rising of the sun, unto the going down thereof.

[2] Deut. 4.26. & 32.1. All the inhabitants thereof (for all are concern'd) whom he summons as witnesses of his proceedings in this solemn judgment of his people for their Formality.

* God hath [5] shined.

[3] (The place where he do's especially manifest himself on Earth.) ¶ [4] Psal. 48.2. The most beautiful and lovely place in the whole World. ¶ [5] Appear'd gloriously, as upon a Judgment-seat.

3 [6] Our God shall come, and [6] shall not keep silence: [7] a fire shall devour before him, and it shall be very tempestuous round about him.

[6] q. d. Tho the Lord be our God in covenant with us, yet that will not secure us from his judgments, if we pervert and corrupt his Worship, but he'l come to judge us for our Formality and Hypocrisie, and will no longer connive at it. ¶ [7] Psal. 97.3. Mal. 3.-2. i. e. He shall appear very terrible in his calling men to account for the breach of his Law, as he did at first in the giving of it.

4 * He shall call to the [8] heavens from above, and to the [8] earth, that he may judge his people.

[12] Psal. 97.6. The Inhabitants thereof, who being summon'd as Witnesses (v. 4.) shall now give their Testimony on his behalf. ¶ [13] q. d. And it must needs be so, that the judgment is righteous, because it's passed by God himself, in his own Person, and not only by his Deputies.

6 Wilt thou not [7] revive us again: that thy people may rejoyce in thee?

[7] Hab. 3.2. Bring back the remainder of thy Captives, (as thou haſt done ſome of 'em.)

* Iſa. 45.8.

11 * [14] Truth ſhall ſpring out of the earth; and [14] righteouſneſs ſhall look down from heaven.

[14] God's Juſtice being fully ſatisfied, he ſhall graciouſly and favourably look down from heaven upon men: and then alſo theſe Graces ſhall ſo abound in the days of the Meſſiah, as if the earth brought forth nothing but Truth, and the heavens rain'd down nothing but Righteouſneſs.

12 Yea, the LORD ſhall give that which is [15] good; and our land ſhall [16] yield her increaſe.

David maketh a vow and profession of godliness.

¶ A psalm of [1] David.

[1] Penn'd when he was near possession of the Kingdom.

I Will sing of [2] mercy and [3] judgment: unto thee, O LORD, will I sing.

[2] Viz. To my self, in making good thy promise of bestowing the Kingdom on me, and in all other particulars throughout my life. ¶ [3] In the destruction of my enemies: and accordingly I do by this Song engage my self to govern with Mercy towards the good, and Justice on incorrigible Offenders.

2 I will [4] behave my self wisely in a perfect way; O when wilt thou [5] come unto me? I will [6] walk within my house with a perfect heart.

[4] 1 Sam. 18. 14. Manage all my Affairs with wisdom and integrity. ¶ [5] Settle me in the Kingdom, that I may then have opportunity to perform this engagement. ¶ [6] Govern my Family, as well as my Kingdom, so as I may manifest the uprightness of my heart, and my sincere desire of doing good to them, and bringing glory to thy Name.

† Heb. thing of Belial.

* Psal. 97. 10.

3 I will [7] set no † wicked thing before mine eyes: * I hate the work of them that [8] turn aside, it shall not cleave to me.

[7] Not seek occasions of doing evil, nor suffer my self by any temptations, or persuasions of others, or suggestions of my own corrupt heart, to be drawn to that which is evil, but rather shun it with detestation. ¶ [8] Psal. 125. 5. To sinful courses.

4 [9] A froward heart shall depart from me: I will not [10] know a wicked person.

[9] Persons of a wicked disposition, disaffected to God and goodness, shall be cast off and sent out of my family. ¶ [10] Matth. 7. 23. Own or countenance.

* Psal. 18. 23. Prov. 6. 17.

[11] Psal. 131. 1.

5 Whoso privily slandereth his neighbour, him will I cut off: * him that hath [11] an high look, and a [11] proud heart, will not I suffer.

‖ Or, perfect in the way.

6 [12] Mine eyes shall be upon the [13] faithful of the land, that they may [14] dwell with me: he that walketh ‖ in a perfect way, he shall serve me.

[12] I'll seek out and employ such. ¶ [13] Rev. 17. 14. ¶ [14] Become my Courtiers, Counsellors, and Ministers of State.

7 He that [15] worketh deceit, shall not dwell within my house: he that telleth lies, shall not † tarry in my sight.

[15] Uses any fraudulent dealing to wrong any.

8 I will [16] early destroy all the wicked of the land: that I may cut off all wicked doers from the [17] city of the LORD.

11 And

Psal. 106.

11 And the waters [15] covered their enemies: there was not one of them left.

12 Then [16] believed they his words; they [17] sang his praise.

13 They † [18] soon forgat his works; they waited not for his [19] counsel.

14 But † [20] lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, and tempted God in the desert.

15 And he gave them their request; but sent leanness into [21] their soul.

16 [22] They envied Moses also in the camp, and Aaron the [23] saint of the LORD.

17 The [24] earth opened and swallowed up Dathan, and covered the company of Abiram.

18 And a [25] fire was kindled in their company; the flame burnt up the wicked.

19 [26] They made a calf in Horeb, and worshipped the molten image.

20 Thus they changed their [27] glory into the similitude of an ox that eateth grass.

21 They forgat God their saviour, which had done great things in Egypt:

22 Wondrous works in * the land of Ham, and terrible things by the Red sea.

23 * Therefore [28] he said that he would destroy them, had not Moses his chosen [29] stood before him in the [30] breach, to turn away his wrath, lest he should destroy them.

24 Yea, they [31] despised † the [32] pleasant land: they believed [33] not his word.

25 But [34] murmured in their tents, and hearkened not unto the [35] voice of the LORD.

26 * Therefore he [36] lifted up his hand against them, to overthrow them in the wilderness:

27 † To overthrow their seed also among the nations, and to [37] scatter them in the lands.

28 They [38] joyned themselves also unto Baal-peor, and are the sacrifices of [39] the dead.

29 Thus they provoked him to anger with their inventions: and the plague brake in upon them.

30 Then stood up Phinehas, and [40] executed judgment; and so the plague was [41] stayed.

31 And that was [42] counted unto him for righteousness, [42] unto all generations for evermore.

32 [43] They angred him also at the waters of strife; so that it [44] went ill with Moses for their sakes,

33 Because they provoked his spirit, so that he spake unadvisedly with his lips.

34 They did [45] not destroy the nations concerning whom the LORD commanded them:

35 * But were [46] mingled among the heathen, and learned their works;

36 And they served their idols, which were a [47] snare unto them.

37 Yea, they [48] sacrificed their sons and their daughters unto [49] devils,

38 And shed innocent blood, even the blood of their sons and of their daughters, whom they sacrificed unto the idols of Canaan: and * the land was polluted with blood.

39 Thus were they defiled with their [51] own works, and *went [50] a whoring with their [51] own inventions.

40 Therefore was the wrath of the LORD kindled against his people, insomuch that he abhorred his own inheritance.

41 And he [52] gave them into the hand of the heathen; and they that hated them, ruled over them.

42 Their enemies also oppressed them, and they were brought into subjection under their hand.

43 [53] Many times did he deliver them; but they provoked him with their [54] counsel, and were ‖ brought low for their iniquity.

44 Nevertheless, he regarded their affliction when he [55] heard their cry.

45 * And he remembred for them his covenant, and [56] repented according to the multitude of his mercies.

46 He made them also to be [57] pitied of all those that carried them captives.

47 * [58] Save us, O LORD our God, and [59] gather us from [60] among the heathen, to [61] give thanks unto thy holy name, and to [61] triumph in thy praise.

48 Blessed be the LORD God of Israel from everlasting to everlasting; and let all the people say, Amen. † Praise ye the LORD.
